

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Fred W. Butler went to Rogers Monday to spend Christmas at the home of his brother.

E. W. Everson returned home Wednesday from the Twin Cities where he had been on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Miss Grace Wogslund left Thursday for Fargo to resume her school work at the Dakota Business College.

Albert Rasmussen was a Dazey passenger Thursday where he went to visit at the home of his brother Carl.

Mesdames Jacobson and Gilbertson were county seat passengers Thursday.

Swen Swenson returned Thursday from Valley City where he had been to see his father who is in poor health.

Raymond Røhlwing spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Friday having some dental work done.

Miss Dena Wallum returned to Cooperstown Friday after spending a few days here visiting relatives during the holidays.

Elmer Hanson was a Binford passenger Friday on business.

Peter Johnson arrived Monday from Minot for a visit at the Overby home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sad came down from Hannaford Christmas day and drove out to the home of Mrs. Sad's parents for a holiday visit.

The local branch of the Red Cross secured 105 new members during the Christmas drive and have added three more members since Christmas eve. These results are very gratifying and the officers in charge give great credit to those who so earnestly carried on the work during the extremely cold weather.

The Walum Union Sunday School meets each Sunday at 2 o'clock in the Walum schoolhouse. Preaching service held immediately after the close of Sunday school each Sunday. All are welcome.

Rev. James Anderson of Fargo, presiding elder for the Methodist church, held services following Sunday School on Sunday at the Walum school house. Rev. Anderson is an excellent speaker and those who heard him were much pleased.