

• • • • •
• WALUM NEWS NOTES •
• • • • •

The annual election of officers of the Walum Union Sunday School took place in the Walum School last Monday evening at which time the following officers were elected for the year of 1919.

Geo. Medley, Superintendent.

E. W. Iverson, Secretary-Treasurer

Mrs. G. W. Brown, Organist.

Myrtle Everson, Choirister.

Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson, Teacher Class No. 1.

Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson, Teacher Class No. 2.

Geo. Medley, Teacher Willing Workers Class.

Mrs. Geo. Medley, Teacher Bible Class.

Rev. Morange, Assistant Teacher Bible Class.

The report of Secretary Lewis for the past year was adopted and other business matters disposed of.

Immediately after the election of officers had taken place those present remained to enjoy a social which had been planned in connection with the business meetings. Games were played after which a delicious lunch was served. The evening was a most enjoyable one for all those who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Werner and son Gordon went to Fargo Tuesday where Mrs. Werner was to see a specialist for some trouble with her ear. While there they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wunderlich. They returned home Saturday.

E. W. Everson spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday in the interest of the I. V. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Everson visited with relatives at Revere the fore part of this week.

Alfred Nelson returned Tuesday from Viceroy, Sask, where he visited with relatives the past two weeks.

Mesdames Jacobson, Lewis and Toenberg visited at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wallum Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in knitting for the Red Cross after which they were served with a delicious six o'clock dinner.

Mrs. Joe Marson spent the time between trains at Hannaford Thursday.

Chester Wunderlich left last Monday for Fargo after spending a few days visiting relatives here.

Carl Rasmussen was up from Dazey between trains Monday visiting at the home of his father.

Julius Larsen was a Fargo passenger Tuesday.

Mrs. Herman Sanberg left Friday for her home at Grantsburg, Wis., having been here to get her household goods and straighten up the business of her deceased husband.

F. Toenberg was down from Jessie Saturday for a visit at his home here.