

• WALUM NEWS NOTES •

Mrs. Elmer Wallum and daughter Sylvia went to Jessie last Monday, where they spent the time between trains at the Toenberg home.

Arvie B. Wunderlich left last Monday for Fargo. From there he expected to go to Finley for a short visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Baker returned to their home at Fargo Monday after having spent several days here visiting at the Jacobson home.

Harvey Rasmussen was up from Dazey Monday staying only between traigs.

Chester Wunderlich was a Dazey passenger Monday where he expected to visit over night with relatives and then leave for his new home at Jamestown.

Wm Nelson of Cooperstown spent a few hours here on business Monday.

Miss Evelyn Bowers returned here Monday after having spent Christmas at her home near Fingal.

James Rasmussen arrived Tuesday from Finley, N. D., and spent the time between trains here visiting and taking care of some business matters.

E. W. Iverson returned here Tuesday from a visit to his home in Minnesota.

Mr. Raymond Newport left Wednesday for Oklahoma after having spent several days here visiting at the Jacobson home.

Miss Margaret Meyers came up from Dazey Wednesday and visited friends here.

Miss Lilly Wunderlich went to Dazey Wednesday for a visit with friends there.

Eugene Markwood was a Cooperstown passenger Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Everson arrived home Thursday from Menahga Minn., where they visited during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Evenson spent the time between trains at Binford Thursday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Larsen went to Shepard Thursday where they visited relatives between trains.

Misses Laura and Eva Fogderud left Saturday for Valley City.

Arvie B. Wunderlich returned Saturday from Finley, N. D., where he spent a short time visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Erik Heyerdahl and daughter Myrtle left Saturday for Valley City.

Geo. J. Jacobson left Sunday evening for Fargo on business.

Chester Wunderlich arrived Saturday from Jamestown to look after some business matters here.

E. W. Everson and Andrew Wogslund were Hannaford passengers Friday.

Miss Marion Markwood visited with relatives here a few days this week and returned to Cooperstown Saturday.