WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Word has been received that Mrs. Wogsland and daughter have both had their operations and are getting along well. This will be good news to their many friends.

E. W. Iverson and friend left last Saturday for Fargo but on account of a bad mudhole at Rogers decided that was enough and returned home and waited until the next day to make the trip and the last we heard was that he arrived in Fargo after a hard trip. Blessed be the Fords.

Mrs. Toenberg from Jessie was a visitor in town last Thursday. E. W. Iverson and F. F. Butler returned home with her.

Word has been received that F. Toenberg, formerly of Waikum but now of Jessie has secured a position as buyer for the Farmers Elevator at Tolna, N. D., and has already commenced his duties with that concern.

Quite a number of Walumites have been attending the fair at Valley City the past week.

Gilbert Trangsrud and family spent a few days here during the Fourth.

Encouraging news has reached us that Elmer Wallum is improving every day and we are sure all glad to hear the good news. Here is hoping that we will all soon see Elmer back to town again.

Evelyn Bowers spent the Fourth visiting with her folks at Kensal.

Quite a crowd attended the Sale of Arne Hovland's which was held Saturday, July 10th.

A. Tougas and family spent the Fourth with Julius Larsen and family.

When in need of hay tools call on the Farmers Store. They have what you want and the best tools to hay with. Get their price and you will save money.

E. W. Iverson and Miss Myrtle Everson and Mrs. Geo. Jacobson, Grace Wogsland and F. F. Butler spent Sunday visiting at the Toenberg home at Jessie.

The Walum Ladies Aid will meet at St. Olaf Church on Thursday, July 15th. Mrs. Eric Wallin and Mrs. Andrew Fogderud will serve. Everybody welcome.

Andrew Wogsland made a business trip to Valley City Monday.

Mr. Nash, of Finley, has taken charge of the Farmers Elevator here and has moved his family and they are making their home at Mandrup
