

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Fred F. Butler and Elmer O. Walum returned last Saturday from Fargo where they attended the State Fair.

The foundation is being laid for an addition to the Farmers State Bank.

J. H. Von Seen of Fargo spent a few days in town last week on business.

Mrs. Andrew Nelson, and Mrs. Andrew Fogderud left Monday for Viceroy, Sask., where they will visit with friends, and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Miss Dena Wallum was a Coopers-town passenger Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Werner and Julius Larsen returned last Sunday from Fargo where they were visitors at the Fair. While going to Fargo in Mr. Larsen's car they crossed a bad hole in the road between Casselton and Fargo at a good rate of speed and the jar threw Mr. and Mrs. Werner up against the top of the auto and both received a number of scratches on their faces—neither, however, were seriously hurt and are fairly well over the shock.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin O. Wallum and E. W. Iverson arrived home Sunday from Fargo.

Julius Larsen, H. J. Carroll, Axel Servin and A. Wunderlich motored to Valley City Friday on business.

The directors of the Farmers Elevator & Mercantile Co. met Thursday and re-employed Fred F. Butler as manager for the coming year.

Eric O. Wallin and John L. Micklethun motored to Valley City Friday on business.

A meeting of the local Red Cross branch was held Friday evening and a report of the past year's business was read to the members.

Peter C. Nelson, Willard Nelson and Eugene Carroll were Coopers-town passengers Saturday.

Axel Servin spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday on business.