

hands and knees. It will be worth your while—and it's your fair. Help to make the 1919—or Victory Fair—the biggest and best in the history of the county.

The dates are July 1, 2, 3, 1919.

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Geo. Medley and Miss Irene Penrose left Monday for Mandan, N. D., to attend the State Sunday School convention.

Protect your horses from bot flies. Get nose guards at special price on election day at Campbell Bros. Hardware Co., Walum.

E. W. Everson left Monday for Fargo on business.

Robert Nelson arrived Tuesday from Canada where he has been employed by a garage. He will remain in this community for some time.

The easiest way to become the possessor of wealth is to conserve one's resources through the aid of a bank account. It only takes one dollar to start an account at our bank. Better begin to-day. Farmers State Bank of Walum.

Carl Heyerdahl left Friday for Fargo where he expected to purchase an automobile.

Gerd, Ruth and Rolf Toenberg came down from Jessie Friday to visit with friends here.

Dr. Barnes came up from Dazey Saturday on professional business.

F. F. Butler went to Rogers Saturday to visit over Sunday with his brother.

Quite a number of farmers east of town met at the Farmers Store Friday noon and proceeded in a body to Courtenay to hear Townley speak.

The joint picnic of the Walum and Dazey Sunday Schools which was to have been held at Medley's farm Saturday has been postponed until Saturday, June 28, on account of the heavy rain. Bear this in mind and be sure to attend.

The gateway from wages to independence is the bank. There are many ways to earn money, there are more ways to spend money but there is only one way to save money and that is to deposit it in the bank. Come in and see us about this. Farmers State Bank of Walum.

Mrs. A. Gilbertson left Monday for Fargo after a week's visit here at the home of her son, O. A. Gilbertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric O. Wallin returned home from Viceroy, Sask., Tuesday, where they have been visiting with friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Raymond Campbell arrived Wednesday from Indiana for a short visit at the Jacobson home. Raymond visited with relatives and friends in Indiana after receiving his discharge from the army.

Carl F. Werper, H. J. Carroll and Chester Wunderlich motored to Valley City Wednesday on business.

W. Iverson arrived Thursday from Pelican Lake, Minn., to visit with his brother Ernest. He left again Saturday for his home.

We invite the account of women assuring them at all times of most gentlemanly and respectful treatment, gladly giving careful attention to every item of business placed in our hands. We are always glad to have them consult us at any time upon matters concerning their business affairs and will be glad to advise or suggest as our best judgment directs. Farmers State Bank of Walum.

Joe Marson and family moved to Dazey Saturday where they will make their future home.

Gilbert Trangsrud and family motored here from Binford Sunday to visit with relatives.

George Medley is driving a Maxwell now. Give him plenty of room.

Christ Hanson has purchased the Paige car formerly owned by Jacob Miklethun.

Rheinhold Peterson had a narrow escape Saturday while running Medley's new Fordson tractor. It seemed that while breaking with the hitch changed from its regular position in order to have the plows work most satisfactorily, which placed the load too far back the tractor turned completely over backwards. "Mr. Peterson managed however to throw himself partly clear of the overturning engine and escaped with only a few bruises.

Joe Marson is painting the Farmers Elevator.

No other Chautauqua in North Dakota offers so many advantages as does the Spiritwood Lake Assembly June 29th to August 3rd. Boating, fishing, bathing, high class talent, moving pictures, refined vaudeville.

A close-up view of the blowing of a trench in No Man's Land is one of the hundreds of thrilling features in Allen Holubar's eight-reel production, "The Heart of Humanity," in which Dorothy Philips will appear in the leading role at the Strand theatre on July 2 and 3, at Cooperstown.

PLEASING, INDEED.

Edith—That young lieutenant you introduced to me is a fellow with a very pleasing address.

Betty—I should say so. His address is Kissimee, Fla.