

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Geo. R. Rolseth motored to Valley City Thursday on business.

Mrs. F. Toenberg came down from Jessie Wednesday for a short visit with friends here.

Miss Grace Wogslund, Mrs. F. Toenberg and son Finn motored to Jessie Thursday.

Mrs. Harold Hartman of Fargo is visiting at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Heyerdahl.

John L. Micklethun left Monday for Fargo on a short business mission.

Miss Lois Campbell arrived here Friday from Fargo where she is attending school to visit at the home of her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson.

Miss Alice Olson arrived here Monday from McVillie, N. D., where she has been teaching school, to visit at the Albert Johnson home east of town.

John Steen, who bought grain here for the Great Western Grain Co. about three years ago, was here on business Friday and renewed old acquaintances while in town.

When you are in need of farm machinery get our prices together with other prices and you will find that we are here to save you money. Farmers Co.-Op. Merc. Co., Walum and Hannaford.

Remember we are the only dealers in the territory handling the Plymouth Binder Twine. We will give you prices that will compete with all other dealers and will save you great deal of money. Get our prices. Farmers Co.-Op. Merc. Co., Walum and Hannaford.

The Farmers Co-Operative Mercantile Co. are doing all they can to assist their patrons during a time when they are busy. Deliveries of farm machinery to the farmers are being made by this concern when the purchaser is unable to spare the time to come after their needs.

Use your phone. Get us to bring out a tractor now and do not wait. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co. Walum and Hannaford.

Geo. J. Jacobson and Henry Lewis are having a well drilled near their homes this week.

Carl Strand, Marvin Hustad, Miss Josie Strand, Miss Nan Berg and Mrs. J. P. Danielson arrived here last Monday from St. John. They made the trip by auto.

Chas. Gustafson left Monday for his home at Brainard after a short visit at the Julius Larson farm home near Walum.

Geo. J. Jacobson returned Saturday from a week's business trip to the Twin Cities.

What would you be paying for machinery if we were not in business? Let us have a talk with you on your implement needs. Farmers Co-Operative Merc. Co., Walum and Hannaford.

Remember we have saved many farmers money on machinery this spring, and will save you some money also, if you give us your trade or even a chance. Farmers Co.-Op. Merc. Co., Walum and Hannaford.

Miss Nan Berg, who has been visiting with friends here a few days, left Friday evening for LaMoire, N. D., where she expects to visit with friends before going to her home at Minneapolis.

At a non-partisan meeting held here Wednesday evening Mr. Spurgeon Odell of Minnesota spoke to an audience of about 200 taking up the league's side of the present political campaign. Mr. John L. Micklethun, senator from this district, presided at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Spear and Miss Marie Iverson motored here Saturday with E. W. Iverson's car which he left in Fargo a week ago on account of a heavy rain. They returned to Fargo on Saturday evening's train.

We are willing to demonstrate our MOLINE TRACTOR to you at any time and also willing to have other tractors compete with us on the same grounds. Give us a chance. Farmers Co-Op., Merc. Co., Walum, N. Dak.

Oscar Peterson and sister Ruth motored here Sunday from Pelican Rapids, Minn., to visit for a short time at the home of his sister, Mrs. Albert Johnson. Mr. Peterson left on Monday evening's train from Hannaford for Pelican Rapids, while his sister remained for a longer visit.

FARM

with the

