

and interment will be made in that cemetery.

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Geo. J. Jacobson returned last Monday from Minneapolis where he spent the past week on business.

Mrs. Joe Marson and son Mike

The Boy's Suit

The WOOLY BOY suit—the suit that will please both were at Cooperstown between trains Thursday having some dental work done.

Carl F. Werner and son Gordon and Miss Ermie Larsen returned Thursday from Minneapolis where they have been visiting relatives for some time.

Geo. J. Jacobson and Julius Larsen went to Fargo Thursday on business returning home Friday.

The Ladies Aid dinner and auction sale held in the Hall Friday proved a success.

Carl Ekstrand was a Cooperstown passenger Friday.

Miss Laura Fogderud and Conrad Fogderud were at Cooperstown between trains Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoffman arrived Thursday from Illinois where Mr. Hoffman spent the winter. While spending the winter there he was married and the couple will make their home on Mr. Hoffman's farm southwest of town. The Enterprise joins the community in wishing the young couple a long and happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwn Everson left Sunday evening for Fargo where they will spend a couple of days. Mrs. Everson will return here from Fargo but Mr. Everson will go from Fargo to St. John N. D., to attend to some business.

Spring stock is arriving daily at the Farmers Store at Walum. Better come in and make your selections early while all lines are complete.