

• • • • •
• WALUM NEWS NOTES •
• • • • •

Nels Olson returned Monday from Fargo where he had been with his wife during an operation which it was necessary to perform. He reports her condition as improving.

Frank and Forest Campbell arrived Monday from Logansport, Ind., for a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson.

Do you like to dance? Read ad

Raymond Rohlwing was at Cooperstown between trains Monday.

Fred F. Butler returned Tuesday from Minneapolis where he had spent the past week having some dental work done and attending to some important business matters.

Mrs. N. K. Markuson arrived Tuesday from her home at Dooley, Mont., in response to a call on account of her mother's illness.

Herman Peterson arrived Thursday from Montana where he has been employed on a ranch owned by Hammer Condy Co. of Cooperstown, to visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. B. C. Stromme.

John L. Miklethun and Eric O. Wallin went to Cooperstown Thursday to hear the address given there by Judson King under the auspices of the Nonpartisan League.

Mrs. John Fliflet and daughter, Magna, went to Cooperstown Thursday.

While going to the Wam auction sale Thursday Alfred Nelson had the misfortune of skidding on the rough road just west of town with his Ford breaking the hind wheel. However, he was fortunate in being able to loan a wheel close by in order to continue the trip. The car was loaded but none of the occupants were hurt.

Arvie Wunderlich was at Cooperstown Thursday on business.

Miss Anna D. Olson left Thursday for Fargo.

Oscar Mosher was a Valley City passenger Thursday.

Miss Dena Wallum returned to Cooperstown Friday having spent the past few days here visiting relatives.

Christ Hanson spent the time between trains Friday at the county seat.

Olaf Running arrived Friday from Duluth, Minn., to enter the employment of Swen Swenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson, Frank and Forrest Campbell left Friday for Edmunds where they will visit with relatives.

Vernon Sletten returned Saturday to Hannaford having visited at the home of Jas. Rasmussen.

Justin Wallum spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday.

Bills are out announcing a dance in the Hall on Wednesday evening of this week.