J. H. Van Scoik returned Saturday to his home at Jamestown having been here to put in the roller curtains at the consolidated school west of town.

Herman Pederson left Monday for Cooperstown where he expects to be employed for the coming season, having spent the past week here visiting at the Ben C. Strömme farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson went to Luverne Monday to visit at the home of Theo. Rasmussen. Mr. Anderson expects to move to Luverne about April 1st having made arrangements to enter the service of the Luverne Dray Line.

Andrew O. Thompson returned Monday from Minneapolis where he has spent most of the winter.

E. W. Everson left Tuesday for Fargo and Minneapolis on business.

Geo. Medley was at Cooperstown between trains Wednesday on business.

Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson and Mrs. H. C. Jensen visited with friends at Hannaford between trains Wednesday.

Those who held numbers on Dr. J. Juell's bible will be pleased to know that the drawing took place Saturday, March 2, and Edwin L. Nelson, former assistant cashier at the Farmers State Bank and now serving in the signal battalion of the army drew the lucky number thirteen. It seems rather a co-incident inasmuch as his registration number was also 13. What seems to be an unlucky number to others appears to be his lucky number, that is if a chance to serve one's country is considered luck. Some consider it such and some do not.

Raymond Rohwing was a Cooperstown passenger Thursday.

Miss Clara Rasmussen and Arvie Wunderlich left Monday evening for Fargo and on Tuesday, March 12th, were married at Moorhead, Minn., by Rev. Powell in the Methodist parsonage. Mrs. Mary McBride and Oscar Skaug of Fargo being present to witness the wedlock. They returned home Thursday and will make their home here. The Enterprise joins with their many friends in wishing them unlimited happiness and success throughout their wedded life.

H. G. Rohwing and James Carroll spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Friday on business.

Harvey Thomsen, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thomsen was taken suddenly ill Tuesday morning from a relapse of the whooping cough and died before the doctor could reach the Thomsen home. The funeral was held on Thursday, March 14th, interment being made in St. Olaf's cemetery at Walum. Rev. P. A. Thoreson spoke at both the house and church. Many beautiful floral offerings were given.

Mrs. H. C. Jensen and sister Miss Myrtle Everson left Friday morning for Kalispell, Mont., the home of Mrs. Jensen. Mrs. Jensen has spent the past month here visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Everson and other relatives.

Mrs. Isabelle Nelson died Friday morning at her home after a prolonged illness. Funeral services were held Monday, March 15th.

N. K. Markuson arrived Saturday from Dooley, Mont., being called here on account of the death of Mrs. Markuson's mother, Mrs. Isabelle Nelson.

James Rasmussen and E. O. Walum and Chester Wunderlich went to Hannaford Saturday for Nordeng & Alm's auction sale.

LOST—By quite a number last Sunday an opportunity of making our attendance at the Walum Union Sunday School, 100 per cent perfect in the year 1918. If we have dropped one jewel from the string let us resolve to drop no more.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly assisted us and sent flowers, during the sickness and funeral of our little boy. Also to those who rendered the beautiful music and songs, and we wish especially to extend thanks to Rev. Thoreson for his kind and sympathetic words.

Mr and Mrs. C. M. Thomsen

Red Cross Notes

Every lady in Hannaford is asked to meet at the Ladies Hall on Friday afternoon of this week for the purpose of making comfort kits for the soldier boys.

The sum of $8.35 was realized by the ladies of the Red Cross at the lunch served at the schoolhouse last Saturday.
