

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Lewis Nelson arrived last Saturday from Fergus Falls to be in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Chas. Nelson.

Elmer Wallum, Chester Wunderlich and James Rasmussen were Hannaford passengers last Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence Alcock arrived Sunday from her home at Ambrose, N. D., having been called here on account of the death of Mrs. Chas. Nelson.

Mrs. Carl F. Werner was at Cooperstown between trains Monday.

Erik Heyerdahl and Swen Swenson spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Monday on business.

Chas. Wieseman arrived Monday from Spokane, Wash., having spent the winter months in the west.

Einar Bjugstad was a county seat passenger Tuesday.

Olaf Nelson arrived Wednesday from Minneapolis where he has spent the winter. Mr. Nelson will work for Elmer Wallum again this season.

Mrs. Ben C. Stromme left Thursday for Fargo where she expects to undergo an operation. Mrs. Stromme has been ailing for some time.

Joseph and Robert Nelson arrived Thursday from Clarissa, Minn., and will remain in this community for the summer.

Carl Haines arrived Thursday from Minneapolis where he has been employed during the winter.

Mrs. Jas. Carroll left Friday for Pekin, N. D., where she will visit at the home of her daughter Elizabeth.

Chas. Wieseman was a Hannaford passenger Friday.

Mrs. Arvie Wunderlich went to Hannaford Saturday to visit with her sister, Mrs. Carl Sletten.

Remember the Sunday School and church services at the Walum school house on Easter Sunday, March 31. An effort will be made to make these Easter meetings interesting and helpful to all. Let us have a large attendance.

Missing! Nine young men from the Walum Union Sunday School. If they miss the Sunday School as much as the Sunday School misses them, they will make a special effort to be present in the future.