

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

In last week's issue an error was made in the announcement of the Ladies Aid Annual Sale. The ladies will serve dinner and have their sale in the afternoon instead of serving supper as was stated in last week's issue. Friday, March 7th is the day. Come and have a good dinner and stay for the auction sale as there are many useful articles to be sold.

E. W. Everson left Wednesday for Bismarck to attend a meeting of the Independent Voters Association.

Mrs. John Fliflet and daughter, Magna went to Cooperstown Thursday where they visited with friends until Saturday when they returned home.

Mrs. Albert Rasmussen and children left Monday for their home at Coulee, N. Dak., having spent some time visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. H. C. Jensen arrived Thursday from Royal, Iowa, to visit relatives here.

Fred F. Butler went to Rogers Saturday for an over Sunday visit with relatives there.

Eric O. Wallin left Saturday for Minneapolis where he will see an eye specialist regarding some trouble with his eyes.

M.O. Wallum was at Cooperstown between trains Friday on business.

C. A. Evenson was at Hannaford between trains Friday.