

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Try some of our coffee. We have coffee that has the taste. Farmers Store, Walum.

O. M. Rogallen and W. W. Bothwell were Cooperstown passengers Tuesday as committeemen from local precincts to the county N. P. L. meeting held at Cooperstown Wednesday where the county ticket was named.

Our oyster shell sells fast. Better get a sack before it all goes. Our price is the cheapest. Farmers store, Walum.

Friends of Ireno Penrose will be pleased to learn of her safe arrival at Toronto, Canada, a week ago last Saturday. Miss Penrose spent nearly a year in this vicinity staying at the farm home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Medley. During her stay here she made many friends who regret her departure. At the time of her leaving, the flu was on its rampage and it was feared Miss Penrose might contract the disease while on her trip to her home in Toronto, but word has been received that she made the trip without mishap.

We have a few percales that have arrived and are selling at 40 cents per yard. 36 inches wide. Farmers Store, Walum.

Joe Nelson went to Cooperstown Saturday where he spent the time between trains on business and visiting with friends at the county seat.

Be sure to get a sweater or leather vest before they are all gone. Get them now and save some money. Farmers Store, Walum.

Hathaway and Hustad left Saturday for Dazoy where they expect to complete the high tension line running east of Dazoy after which they will return here to finish the work on the Walum line and complete some electric wiring contracts they have here.

Be sure to come in and see the new Kentucky Drill before you buy. We all know what they can do. The Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., at Walum have them for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson and Miss Lola Campbell left Thursday for Fargo where Miss Campbell will resume her schooling at the D. B. C. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson returned home Saturday.

We always pay the highest market prices for butter and eggs. Try us. Farmers Store, Walum.

Mr. and Mrs. John Broten arrived Friday from Glenfield and will make a couple of weeks' visit with friends and relatives in the vicinity. Mr. Broten has sold out his business at Glenfield and expects to take some time off before catering any new field.

The Titan Tractor which sells for $1000 is sure a winner. The company cannot make them fast enough. Come in now and place your order for one of these TITANS. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Everson and daughter Mrs. J. P. Danielson arrived home Friday from St. John, N. D., where Mrs. Danielson was ill with the flu for about a month. Her many friends will be glad to learn of her recovery.

If you need a new Plow, Drag, Disc, Tractor, Motor Truck or anything else in the machine line, why call on us. We are here to please you. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum.

Mrs. F. Toenberg and son Finn came down from Jessie Tuesday. Mrs. Toenberg made an over-night stay with friends here and Finn is staying here so he could have his shoulder attended to, which he broke some time ago.

Brass, Middlings or Shorts are handled by the Farmers Store, Walum, and be sure to call or leave your order now for the feed before the mills gets their spring rush.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wallum entertained a number of their friends at their farm home Saturday evening. The time was spent playing popular games after which a delicious lunch was served. All who attended report a real good time.

When the auto roads get good do not forget to call at the Farmers Store, Walum, and place your order for an auto truck. They handle the INTERNATIONAL and they are the best truck made. References that are good are the stars of them.