

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Miss Flaten left Monday for Fargo after spending a few days visiting at the Hovland farm home.

E. W. Everson left Monday for Fargo on business.

Andrew Wogsland made several trips to Valley City the past week on business.

M. O. Wallum was a Valley City passenger Monday going there on business. He returned home Wednesday.

F. F. Butler returned Monday from Jessie where he visited over Sunday at the Toenberg home.

Miss Lily Wunderlich arrived home Tuesday from Wimbledon where she has been employed for some time.

Mrs. J. Wagoner left Tuesday for her home at Oriska having been visiting a few days at the Julius Larsen farm home.

Mrs. J. Welsh left Tuesday for Fargo where Mr. and Mrs. Welsh expect to make their home for the winter.

Get your overshoes at the Farmers Store, Walum. Very nice line of this goods.

Mr. Frank Porter left Wednesday for his home at Rolla, N. D., after spending a couple of weeks here visiting friends. Mr. Porter expected to stop at Fargo for a few days on his way home.

Pete Grotting was a Cooperstown passenger Thursday going there on business.

Mrs. Oscar Storlie and sister went to Hannaford Thursday.

Robert Nelson left Thursday for his home at Clarissa, Minn., having been here for some time in the employ of Chester Wunderlich.

Chester Wunderlich returned Thursday from Jamestown where he spent a few days on business.

Edward Hanlan left Thursday morning for Minot where he expected to consult a physician regarding his ill health.

Go to Campbell Bros. Hardware Co. for anything in the hardware line. Always ready to serve you.

Herman Pederson spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Friday.

Geo. J. Jacobson left Friday for Fargo on business.

Miss J. Bowers arrived last Monday and has taken up the position of stenographer at the Farmers State Bank relieving Miss Ellen Brende-

HANNAFORD ENTERPRISE

— BY —
P. A. ANDERSON, PUBLISHER

Entered as second-class matter Aug. 15, 1904, at the post office at Hannaford, N. D., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Additional Locals

Olof Krag came up from Fargo Wednesday for a short visit with friends. Mr. Krag is employed in a barber shop in Fargo.

We still have some cotton and wool mixture yarn which we are selling at 69c a skein. This is the regular 85c skein. Gray and khaki. Hannaford Mercantile Co.

Wide track bob sleds are for sale by Aarestad Bros. & Troseth. Also tank heaters and furnaces. Call at their hardware store when in the market for anything in their line.

Wednesday was the greatest day Hannaford has had for a long time. Everybody within a radius of ten miles was in town. It wasn't a circus that drew a crowd, but the fact that a carload of coal arrived here that day.

What is proving to be one of the most popular motion pictures ever produced is the screen version of Rupert Hughes' daring story, "The Unpardonable Sin," which will be shown for the first time in Hannaford at Jackson's Hall, Saturday, Nov. 29th.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Skjelset and family have moved to Fargo where they have bought a house and will make their future home. Arne Skjelset will work the farm. Mr. and Mrs. Skjelset were among the earliest settlers in Griggs county and will be greatly missed here. We wish them much happiness in their new home.

muhl who expects to leave in a short time for Fargo.

Mrs. O. M. Rognlien and daughter Josie were at Hannaford between trains Friday.

Mrs. Julius Larsen went to Shepard Friday to spend the time between trains at the home of her parents.

Chester Wallum was a Dazey passenger Friday.

Mrs. J. P. Danielson and brother Axel Everson left Monday for St. John, N. D.