

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES • •

• • • • •
A. D. Anderson, who formerly was manager of the Farmers Store here, and now of Woodworth, N.D., motored here last Sunday and stayed a few days visiting at the home of Eric O. Wallin, and attended to some business matters.

Misses Laura and Lilly Wunderlich were Hannaford passengers Tuesday.

The Red Cross made up Christmas parcels for the boys at the front Wednesday.

St. Olaf Church at Walum is nearing completion and dedication services will be held Thanksgiving day.

Carl F. Rohlwing left Saturday evening for San Francisco, California, where he expects to remain at least through the winter and possibly longer.

E. W. Everson left Wednesday for Carrington on business, going by auto with A. D. Anderson of Woodworth.

John Steen has resigned his position as agent for the Great Western Grain Co., and has been succeeded by Axel Servin. Mr. Steen has not yet definitely decided where he will move.

The Red Cross gave a benefit dance at Walum Friday evening and had a fair crowd.

Geo. J. Jacobson left Saturday for Minneapolis where he will join Mrs. Jacobson and both will return next week.

Carl F. Werner left Thursday evening for Minneapolis and will bring Mrs. Werner home.