

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Grover Campbell left Monday for Jamestown after spending a week here visiting.

Clifford Wogaland left Wednesday for Valley City where he expected to have some dental work done.

Chester Wunderlich was a Jamestown passenger Tuesday going there to look after his interest in the Radiator business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fogderud and son Conrad spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Monday.

Mrs. C. A. Evenson and Mrs. Oscar Anson went to Cooperstown Monday where they spent the time between trains shopping.

Carl Heyerdahl had the misfortune to break his thumb Monday while putting the belt on a feed mill.

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

Some Food For Thought

Farme

A. Dr. Benson was away at the time it was necessary for Mr. Heyerdahl to go to Valley City on the evening train to have his thumb dressed.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Larsen went to Shepard Monday to visit between trains at the Tougas farm home.

Get an O'Cedar oil mop for your wife and lighten her burden in the home. Campbell Bros. Hardware Co., Walum.

Peter Johnson went to Dasey Friday for a few days' visit with friends there.

Eugene Sonju was a Binford passenger Friday.

Raymond Wogaland spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Thursday.

Mr. S. Juell and son Alf were at Cooperstown between trains Wednesday on business.

Julius Larsen was a Cooperstown passenger Thursday on business.

Mrs. Joe Marson came up from Dasey Thursday to visit with friends here between trains.

Mrs. Chester Wunderlich went to Handafor Thursday to visit with her sister Mrs. Carl Sletten.

Erik Rud returned to his home at Valley City Thursday having spent a few days visiting friends and relatives in Dover Township.

Andrew Wogaland went to Valley City Friday to have his eyes treated.

Herman Pederson and Miss Mary Stromme left Monday for Fargo where it is expected Miss Stromme will enter the hospital for treatment.

Erik Heyerdahl went to Valley City Saturday to spend a few days with his family there.

Joe Nelson was at Cooperstown between trains Saturday.

Let us fill your Thanksgiving grocery order. Farmers Co-Operative Merc. Co., Walum.

E. W. Everson arrived home Saturday from a trip to the Twin Cities and Fargo.

Cooperstown had a large delegation of the Walum fair ones Saturday, the following ladies being in the party: Mesdames Werner, Nelson, Lewis, Campbell, E. Wallum and Misses Selma and Minnie Olson. Becketon they'll all be logged up Thanksgiving.