

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Wm. G. Brown was a passenger for Fargo Monday.

Melvin Heyerdahl has purchased a new Overland.

Miss Lela Campbell went to Dasey Tuesday evening.

E. W. Iverson left Tuesday evening for Fargo where he visited at the home of his sister, and also attended to some business while there. He returned home Thursday.

Mrs. J. P. Danielson, Miss Alta Schoonover and Private Selmer Phelps arrived Tuesday from St. John, to visit at the E. W. Everson farm. Private Phelps left again Wednesday for Camp Custer, having been home on a thirty days' furlough to help with the harvest.

Andrew Thompson was a Valley City passenger Wednesday returning Thursday.

Mr. Montgomery arrived from Bismarck Wednesday and as a representative of the North Dakota Council of Defense authorized the Farmers Elev. & Merc. Co. to take over and operate the elevator belonging to the Consolidated Elevator Co. of Duluth, whenever it was found necessary in order to handle the crop. At present it does not seem necessary to take over this house as quite a lot of grain has been loaded out and there is room to take care of the grain that is coming in yet.

Mrs. C. Wunderlich and Miss Hoy visited between trains at Hannaford Wednesday.

H. O. Skogen arrived Thursday from his home at Ghent, Minn., to look after his farming interests here

The Toenborg children spent the time between trains at Jessie Thursday visiting with their father.

Mrs. J. W. Canfield and children arrived Saturday from Brandon, Manitoba. The Canfield family will move into one of the Geo. Jacobson residences here as soon as their household goods arrive. :