

• • • • •
• WALUM NEWS NOTES •
• • • • •

There is on display at the Farmers Store a Boche cap which was taken off a dead boche on no man's land by Floyd Campbell and sent to his sister here Miss Lela Campbell as a token of the war.

Miss Ulrikka Brunn, a temperance lecturer from Chicago, spoke at the Lutheran church last Sunday and later visited friends here until Wednesday when she left for New Rockford.

Miss Carrie Larson was a Coopers-town passenger Tuesday.

Julius Larsen, Elmer Wallum and Carl Werner motored to Valley City Tuesday on business.

Miss Hoy is visiting at the Chester Wunderlich home.

Andrew Nelson has sold his tree claim farm to C. A. Evenson for a consideration of nine thousand dollars.

H. G. Rohlwing has decided to quit farming and has rented his place to Elmer O. Wallum who will take possession about Nov. 1st. The Rohlwing family expect to go west for the winter but have not definitely decided where they will locate.

Elmer Wallum has bought a new Ford and is busy dodging the telephone poles.

G. A. Gunderson was at Coopers-town between trains Thursday having some dental work done.

The Red Cross shipment this week consisted of ten pairs of knitted socks.

Andrew Nelson has purchased the C. A. Nelson house in Walum and may move to town for the winter.

C. A. Nelson was at Cooperstown between trains Friday in connection with the recent registration.

H. Lynch came up from Clinton, Ill., Friday to look after his farming interests here.

Mrs. Haldor Stromme spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday.

E. L. Newell arrived Saturday and will do some cement work for Geo. J. Jacobson.

Mrs. Ole Broten and daughter were at Cooperstown between trains Saturday.

Edwin Everson is reported on the sick-list.

Renewals for membership in the American Red Cross are coming in very slow. Won't you fix yours up to-day?