

WALUM NEWS NOTES

E. L. Newell left Monday for Tower City where he will finish up some work he has there before coming here to commence work on the proposed new side walks.

Miss Lela Campbell was a Dazey passenger Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jensen arrived Tuesday from Kalispell, Mont., for a visit at the home of Mrs. Jensen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Everson, and other relatives. Mr. Jensen left again Wednesday for Royal, Iowa, where he has purchased an auto garage. Mrs. Jensen will remain here for a while until Mr. Jensen gets properly located at which time she will leave for Royal where they expect to make their home.

Frik Rud came up from Valley City Tuesday to assist with the threshing on his farm west of town.

The interior of the Farmers State Bank is being re-decorated and the decorations are being applied to the new addition to the bank by Knute Nelson of Hannaford.

Carl A. Nelson motored to Cooperstown Thursday on business.

Henry Lynch left Thursday for his home at Clinton, Ill., having spent the past week here looking after the marketing of the grain from his farm west of town.

Mrs. Elmer O. Wallum and daughter Sylvia left Thursday evening for LaCrosse, Wis., where they will visit with relatives for a time.

Martin Jorstad arrived Friday from his home in Wisconsin to attend to some business. His stay, however, was very brief as he left the same day returning to his home.

Mrs. Arne Hovland and daughter Margaret spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Friday having some dental work done.

The interior of the Walum school house is being re-kalsomined and the wood-work re-painted by John Anderson of Dazey so as to be in readiness for the opening of school, Oct. 7.

Miss Grace Wogslund left Friday for Fargo where she expects to land a position as bookkeeper for a concern there. She expected to stop off at Valley City to visit briefly with friends.

Homer J. Carroll has purchased the Buick car formerly owned by Julius Larsen.

Haldor J. Stromme received a very painful injury last week while driving a load of grain in some manner he fell off while the horses were attempting to run away, the load passing over his body. He was badly crushed about the hips.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson and Miss Lela Campbell motored to Edmunds Saturday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Layne.