

Julius Westley came home Sunday to spend a short furlough with the home folks. Julius is a member of the band on the battleship North Carolina, and has made several trips most of the way across the Atlantic since he enlisted about a year ago.