

KIDNEY-WORT
HAS BEEN PROVED
The SUREST CURE FOR KIDNEY DISEASES.
 Does a lame back or disordered urine indicate that you are a victim? THEN DO NOT HESITATE, use Kidney-Wort as once (Druggists recommend it) and it will speedily overcome the disease and restore healthy action.
Ladies. For complaints peculiar to your sex, such as pain and weakness, Kidney-Wort is unsurpassed, as it will act promptly and safely. Either sex. Incontinence, retention of urine, work that orropy deposits, and dull dragging pains, all speedily yield to its curative power.
 (SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS. Price $1.)

A well-known clergyman, Rev. N. Cook, of Trempealeau, Wis., says: "I find Kidney-Wort a sure cure for kidney and liver troubles."

KIDNEY-WORT
IS A SURE CURE
for all diseases of the Kidneys and LIVER.
 It has specific action on the most important organ, enabling it to throw off toxins and inaction, stimulating the healthy secretion of the bile, and by keeping the bowels in free condition, effecting its regular discharge.
Malaria. If you are suffering from malaria, have the chills, are bilious, dyspeptic, or constipated, Kidney-Wort will surely relieve and quickly cure. In the Spring, to cleanse the system, every one should take a thorough course of it.
 (SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS. Price $1.)

"Last year I went to Europe," says Henry Ward, late Col. 69th Reg. N. G. S. N. Y., now living at 173 W. Side Ave., J. C. Higgins, N. J. "I only returned worse from chronic liver complaint. Kidney-Wort as a last resort, advised by my health that I've heretofore enjoyed for many, many years. He's cured now and consequently happy."

FOR THE PERMANENT CURE OF CONSTIPATION.
 No other disease is so prevalent in this country as Constipation, and no remedy has ever equalled the famous Kidney-Wort as a cure. Whatever the cause, however obstinate the case, this remedy will overcome it.
PILES. THIS distressing complaint is very apt to be complicated with constipation. Kidney-Wort strengthens the weakened parts and quickly cures all kinds of piles even when physicians and medicines have been failed.
 (SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS. Price $1.)

"I will recommend it everywhere," writes Jas. B. Moyer, Carriage Manufacturer, Myerstown, Pa. "because it—Kidney-Wort—'cured my piles.'"

THE GREAT CURE
FOR RHEUMATISM.
 As it is for all the painful diseases of the KIDNEYS, LIVER AND BOWELS. It changes the system of the body, and causes the dreadful suffering which only the victims of Rheumatism can realize. THOUSANDS OF CASES of the worst form of this disease have been quickly relieved, and in short time PERFECTLY CURED.
 (SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS. Price $1.)

"Mr. Walter Cross, my customer, was prostrated with rheumatism for two years; tried, in vain, all remedies; Kidney-Wort alone cured him. I have tried it myself and know that it is good."—Portion of a letter from J. L. Willet, Druggist, Flint, Mich.

Married Women in England.
 The relation of husband and wife in England have been completely revolutionized by the passage of a married woman's property act, the last of a series that has superseded the old common law rule that a woman's rights are merged in her husband. The law now recognizes four classes of married women: Those married before Aug. 6, 1870, are entitled to their earnings and to any property whose title accrues as from to-day, but their husbands are liable for their debts before and after marriage. Those married between 1870 and 1874 are entitled to the above, and to all sums coming to them as next of kin under intestacy, to sum up to $1,000 coming by will or deed, and to rents of freehold descending to them as heiresses. Their husbands are not liable for debts contracted before marriage. In marriages between 1874 and 1883 the husband is only liable for his wife's debts to the extent of the money he has received from her; while women married after the first of this year may acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property just as if they were not married, and without the intervention of trustees. In fine, a wife may now sue her husband, prosecute him criminally, and even make him a bankrupt, just as if she were a man.

Variety in Feeding Fowls.
 Farm and Garden.
 When fowls run at large they gather a great many different substances, and also sufficient exercise. If they are kept in confinement the natural system should be imitated as nearly as possible. So far as the exercise is concerned, we can induce them to scratch and work by scattering a lot of cut straw, salt hay or leaves in their yards in dry weather or in their quarters when it is storming, and throwing thereon a handful of grain. But the feeding is another matter. In the winter they should have meat at times, and also some green food. The meat is not easily procured by farmers remote from slaughter-houses, nor can fowls get insects even when at liberty at the present season. Variety, however, assists us to get partially over the difficulty. Not only corn and good wheat screenings should be used, but oats, buckwheat, hayseed and barley. A mess of soft food in the morning, consisting of bran, meal linseed or cottonseed meal and a little ground bone, is a good substitute for meat, as these substances combined contain phosphate, nitrogen, lime and carbon—just the material for eggs. Green food may be furnished in the shape of green cabbage, early rye, finely cut clover, steeped onions and boiled turnips, carrots and potatoes. The secrets is to change the food as often as can be conveniently done, as there is more virtue in variety than in quantity. Feed early in the morning and late at night, and when the fowls begin to get too fat it shows that the food is too carbonaceous and corn should then be omitted. When once the hens begin to lay they will not then fatten too much, as the eggs cause a heavy demand for food. During a resting spell, however, with heavy feeding, they soon become too fat. At all times, however, they should have enough.

Butter Making.
 An English dairy writer says that in dairy districts of Normandy, Sweden, Denmark and Switzerland the butter is not salted, but sold for consumption in its sweet state. Salting, however is very necessary in many cases, and unless the salt is added in the churn it should be added in the butter-walker. The very finest sample is used, and in proportion according to taste and the custom of the country. In salting large quantities, cakes of about two pounds each are flattened and salted, others being placed over and salted in the same way until the lump is as much as the butter-walker will take. It is then cut into four, and each piece is laid on its side and worked. In placing in tubs these should be washed out with salt water, and salt should be strewn on the bottom as well as the top. There are many methods of salting, such as preserving in muslin bags, which are packed in tubs between layers of salt; and of preserving granulated butter in jars in brine.

The Crops of Ireland.
 A Parliamentary paper has been recently issued showing the acreage and the product of the crops in Ireland in 1882. It appears that during the last twenty years the harvest of 1879 was the worst, and that of 1872 stands next. The harvests of 1880 and 1881 were exceptionally good; that of 1882 was below the average. The acreage under cultivation in 1882 shows a decrease in almost every item as compared with 1881—almost the only exception being oats, in which there was an increase of 3,995 acres. There was a falling off of 38,577 acres in hay, of 33,661 acres in flax, of 22,839 acres in barley and of 17,275 acres in potatoes. The acreage in potatoes was 1,885 by 42,830 acres of the average of the preceding ten years. Besides the falling off in the acreage under cultivation, there had been also a generally deterioration in the average rate of produce per acre. The depreciation in the money value of the crops, as compared with 1881, was $29,000,000, and as compared with the average of the preceding ten years, $12,500,000. The great bulk of the loss last year was on the potato crop.

Mr. F. L. Cincy, of Madison, Ind., writes:
 "I was completely broken up with rheumatism, and was also suffering from indigestion and piles. My aunt, Mrs. Whalen, living in Louisville, wrote, advising me to try Dr. Guy's 'Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla.' I did so, and it cured my joints with vinegar and salt. This treatment relieved me of a life-long ailment."

"I Am the Last of Six."
 One rainy forenoon, something less than a year ago, a pale, cadaverous youth walked into the store of C. N. Crutenden, New York, and in weak, husky tones interrupted frequently by a dry, hacking cough, stated that he wanted a couple of bottles of Hays' Honey of Horsehound and Tar. "I am the last of six," he said; "the others all died of consumption, and I am going fast." He took in all twelve bottles, and is to-day in perfect health—lungs sound, cough gone, not a sound of pulmonary disease remaining. Sold by druggists.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS
As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder.

"I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances."
 "E. G. LOVE, Ph.D."

"It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure."
 "H. A. MOTT, Ph.D."

"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, tartaric acid, or any other injurious substance."
 "HENRY MORRIS, Ph.D., President of Stevens Institute of Technology."

"I have analyzed a package of Royal Baking Powder. The materials of which it is composed are pure and wholesome."
 "S. DANA HAYES, State Assayer, Mass."

"June 23, 1882.—We have made a careful analytical test of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by ourselves in the open market here, and in the original package. We find it to be a cream of tartar powder of the highest degree of strength, containing nothing but pure, wholesome, and useful ingredients."
 "JUAN H. WRIGHT, M.D., Analytical Chemist, St. Louis."
 "ALBERT MERRILL, M.D., "

The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, and at State Fairs throughout the country.

No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Boards of Health all over the world.

NOTE.—The above DIAGRAM illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Schedler. A one pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Schedler only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than the ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair minded person of these facts.

* While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous.
