TERRITORIAL TWINKLINGS.
Grafton claims to have had a trade of $1,458,000 the past year, with 227 new buildings erected at a cost of $825,565.
A. Haggin is Iron's first contributor to the territorial penitentiary. He stole horses and will serve four years.

Congressman Julius Caesar Burrows, of Michigan is "doing" North Dakota. He has proven a warm friend to this sunny land and is proportionally welcome to its hospitality.
Lafayette Fulton is a deserving young man just appointed postmaster at Casselton, which office yields 1,700 filthy dollars per year. "Laf" is a spanking good fellow, well up in the mail slinging business, and will make a noble P. M.

It is now certain that the streets of Sanborn are to be graded this season, and good walks laid along the principal thoroughfares. The beauty of this movement is, that it will be done without taxation, it being the result of private enterprise.—Valley City Record.

Casselton Reporter: Here is another trick of the sharper that needs attention. A farmer receives a circular through the mails stating that a new and improved variety of wheat has been discovered, and that seed will be furnished free of charge until a crop is raised, on condition that he sends one dollar to pay for postage and packing. If he is foolish enough to send the money, he of course hears nothing more from it.
