Sunday Argus: The excellent quality of the wheat grown in Dakota is becoming known abroad. One of the most extensive milling firms in Scotland have made arrangements to have their agents buy directly of the farmers the Dakota Five wheat and ship it through without letting it into an elevator, where it would be likely to get mixed with other wheat. Preserve the purity of Dakota wheat, and the markets of Europe will give it preference above all.

Manly J. Davis is the sole agent for Griggs county of the Kalamazoo Spring Tooth Harrow.
