A call is issued for a meeting of all Dakota stock-raisers to take place in Fargo, on Monday afternoon, July 8, at 2 o'clock p. m. in the Fargo Opera House. The object of the meeting is to effect, if deemed advisable, the organization of a Dakota Stockmen's Association.

It is no spirit of vaunting that word is sent to friends in the states that Dakota never has tornadoes or cyclones. It is not designed to make gain for the territory out of their misfortunes, but to offer them, in the placid valleys and zephyr-fanned prairies of Dakota, shelter from the most sinister and cruel form of storms.—Argus.

A Girl's Grit.

"It requires not a little courage to enable single ladies to go out on claims a long distance from town, make homes for themselves and live with no neighbor nearer than one to three or four miles. But they do it. A claim jumper recently lighted on a homestead that had been lived on by a young lady for several months, and built a shanty during her temporary absence. On her return she discovered him and his shanty and promptly informed him that if he did not move it inside of an hour she would tear it down herself. He didn't move it. She took an ax and tore it down, and asked him what he was going to do about it. He meekly said he guessed he'd haul his lumber off the claim. And he did. That's the kind of girls that live in Dakota.—Huron Leader.
