

It is stated that at Bloomington, Illinois, recently $200,000 was taken from the banks by persons coming to Dakota, and in Elmira, New York, a still larger amount has been withdrawn from banks by the same class of emigrants.

Carrington News: New potatoes were shown the editor of the Jamestown Alert last week by a neighboring settler. And yet this is the land where polar waves and arctic blizzards reign supreme. Let them wave, and let them "bliz," we say.

While foreigners are pouring into Dakota every spring and summer and taking up our most desirable lands, there are thousands of deserving poor in the eastern states who remain in poverty and wretchedness, either because they have not the nerve or are financially unable to make the move to this land of plenty. The Northern Pacific company is making special efforts to induce German and other foreigners to immigrate thither. That is all right enough. There is plenty of room here for them. But it is greatly to be deplored that more of our own countrymen who are dragging out miserable lives in eastern factories and work shops, cannot, or do not, avail themselves of the grand opportunities afforded here in Dakota for health and wealth without drudgery. Some special missionary work should be inaugurated to spread the gospel truth of Dakota's transcendent advantages among these people.—Bismarck Tribune.

No Dakota for Him.

A land agent wanted a Kentucky farmer to immigrate to Dakota, as he was not making his living in the old commonwealth.

"What inducements do you offer?" asked the farmer.

"We have the richest lands, the finest wheat, the best water, the fattest stock, and the biggest farms in the world."

"Yes," doubtfully interrupted the farmer.

"Why, man, on one of these big farms they plow a furrow five miles long."

"What?"

"They plow a furrow five miles long."

"That ends it, stranger, don't talk Dakota to me! It's all I can do to plow one of these little fifty-yard furrows here in Kentucky, and if it was five miles long I never would get to the end of it. Gee, whoa, buck, git up there!" and he started across his patch, leaving the agent sitting on the fence.—Ex.
