

THE COURIER.

FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1883.

The wheat crop of California is estimated at 56,000,000.

Dakota has 120 newspapers, and others to be established early.

Within nine months 150 postoffices have been established in the territory.

The New York Sun predicts that in the twentieth century Dakota will be the grandest state of the American Union, and the Sun never errs—that is hardly ever.

Dakota has forty-eight money order offices, and the number is constantly increasing.

The Northern Pacific is now completed eighty miles out from Helena, leaving less than one hundred miles more to build.

According to the latest orders from the powers that be at Washington, postmasters must hereafter handle newspapers as carefully as they ought to letters.

It is estimated that from five to eight million of dollars are annually taken to New Hampshire by summer tourists.

When the attractions of North Dakota as a summer resort are fully known still larger sums will be expended here.—Argus.

The Indians of the Fort Totten reservation are to have a new school house costing $68,000. They are highly pleased with this gift from the great father, and they are exuberant in their appreciation of it, offering to furnish the stone, sand, and wood necessary.

It is reported that all the people of Scotland who can get the means to pay their passage, are coming to the United States. They are a gentle, honest and industrious people, and will make a valuable addition to the population of the Northwest, where they will engage in agriculture.

The Fargo Republican puts it thusly: Who wouldn't like a slice of a Dakota winter now? More people are known to have died from heat in the United States than have ever died from the cold in the northwest. Who would trade a cool Dakota night and the refreshing sleep for the hot, sultry, sweltering nights and debilitating days of those sections of the country that some people would not leave to come to Dakota, because it is "too cold, up there?" Our cool evenings redeem our hot days, and the beauty of our summers more than balance our cold winters. We are as well off as anybody so far as weather is concerned.
