It cost Missouri $10,000 to vindicate Colonel Frank James. Bismarck is talking of electric light and street grading. The iron was laid the past week on the Jamestown and Northern branch of the Northern Pacific to New Rockford, sixteen miles north of Carrington and twenty-five miles south of Devil's Lake. The continental hotel, Fargo, has been purchased for a consideration of $83,000 by W. A. Yerxa, W. A. Kindred and Robert Hadwin, and the knight of the flaming necktie steps down and out. In the east it is said the mania for suicide has broken out with renewed vigor, but it is confined to those who are unable to migrate to Dakota, where there are none who have ever perpetrated this crime.—Argus. A few months since, when a train passed Fargo, a wealthy passenger was struck with admiration over the tender manner in which a young lady led her aged grandmother along the path near the track. Seeking an introduction, the man of riches married her in a few weeks and now every time a train pulls into that burg at least a dozen maidens can be seen trotting their old grandmothers up and down the road.
