The postoffice department will not allow advertisements upon the new stamped envelopes. General Hazen says: "Business avocations and employments will be excluded from cards and envelopes—the name of the writer only should be given, without any reference to his occupation."

An Iowa weather prophet, S. D. Brear, gives this quite reasonable forecast of the winter season: Moderate weather until about Nov. 20; cold weather until the first part of January except three or four days moderate early in December. January will be moderate, and some days warm until the twenty-second and twenty-third, when the weather will gradually grow cold, but not quite as cold as last winter at that time. Some days in February it will be cold. The cold weather will last until the ninth or tenth of March, when a break-up will occur. We will have some severe storms in December and February.

Worth Remembering.
Work first, then rest.
Nothing is impossible to industry.
Never let your zeal outrun your charity.
The man that blushes is not quite a brute.
Bad are those men who speak evil of the good.
To be proud of learning is the greatest ignorance.
Wisdom is often concealed beneath mean attire.
Honors come by diligence; riches spring from economy.
It is often better not to see an insult than to avenge it.
Every virtue will have its black, and every sweet its sour.
Every virtue is fairer when it appears in a beautiful person.
A man's wisdom is his best friend; folly is his worst enemy.
The afflictions to which we are accustomed do not disturb us.
The only jewel which you can carry beyond the grave is wisdom.
All the reasonings of men are not worth one sentiment of women.
Both man and womankind belie their nature when they are not kind.
He who thinks his place below him will certainly be below his place.
Men in no way approach so nearly to the gods as in doing good to men.
In age to wish for youth is full as vain as for a youth to turn a child again.
Whatever you dislike in another person, take care to correct in yourself.
