THE NEW EL Dorado.

Editorially the Detroit (Mich.) Evening Journal thus Figures a Big Boom for North Dakota.

The stream of immigration that has poured into Dakota the past year promises to continue for another season, and we may expect glowing accounts of the New Eldorado through various sources. Just now the Northern part of the Territory is having a boom of its own in the shape of a gold craze and people are flocking to the new gold field at Lisbon by the hundred. Dakota already produces nearly as much gold as Colorado, and Colorado is second to California. There is no question but what the Black Hills country is the richest mining region in America to-day. In 1882 the total production of gold and silver in all the States and Territories was $79,300,000, of which $46,800,000 was silver, and 32,500,000 was gold. The relative production in the different States and Territories for 1882 is given in the following table:

	Gold	Silver
Alaska.....	150,000
Arizona.....	1,065,000	$7,500,000
California.....	16,800,000	845,000
Colorado.....	3,360,000	16,500,000
Dakota.....	3,300,000	175,000
Georgia.....	250,000
Idaho.....	1,500,000	2,000,000
Montana.....	2,250,000	4,170,000
Nevada.....	2,000,000	6,675,000
New Mexico.....	150,000	1,800,000
North Carolina.....	190,000	25,000
Oregon.....	880,000	35,000
South Carolina.....	14,000
Utah.....	190,000	6,800,000
Virginia.....	15,000
Washington Territory.....	120,000
Wyoming Territory.....	4,000
Total.....	$32,500,000	46,800,000

It will be observed that Dakota produces nearly twenty times more gold than silver, and there is every reason to believe that its product will be more than double within the next five years. All that is needed to make the Black Hills country the centre of the mining interests of America is railroad facilities, and that is only a question of a year or so. Quartz mining is yet in its infancy in that region, and as soon as railroad connection is made with Deadwood Northern Dakota will be the scene of a greater boom than the southern part of the Territory has had during the past three years.
