

—A new contracting firm has come to the front in Cooperstown, and is composed of D. D. Grant and A. Pinkerton. These gentlemen have already displayed their ability as builders in the excellent job they have executed on the new hotel and boarding house of H. H. Retslaff. Their work seems to be first-class in all respects, and they undoubtedly will receive a fair portion of the business of Cooperstown in their line.