

—Over at Hope cannons are said to be booming and flags flying over the fact that Gov. Ordway has in substance created Steele county by approval of the count returned by the bogus commissioner of Trail county. There is some question as to whether the new county will stand, and it is barely possible that the old saw, "He laughs best who laughs last," may be verified in this instance.