Col. Lounsbury, editor of the Bismarck Tribune, is the recipient of a gold watch and chain, valued at $150, as a Christmas gift. Alex. McKezic is the donor.

It is reported that an emigration society has been formed in Boston, that will send agents to Dakota in the early spring to select lands and locate the colonists.

The case against Dr. Deput of Jamestown, charged with ravishing Miss Maggie Robertson, is on trial at Jamestown. The complaining witness alleges that she was ravished and is now enfeebled, the doctor taking advantage of her unconscious condition while attending her as her physician.

The bones of men and horses found in Dakota are said by General Adams, who commanded the Dakota department eighteen years ago, to be those of twenty-three rebels who in 1865 enlisted in the United States army, and at Fort Sully deserted, stole a horse apiece from the quartermaster, started for British Columbia, and were overtaken by a blizzard the second day out.

Bismarck Capital: The brick work on the walls of the capital is completed. The east wall was carried to its full height yesterday afternoon, and the truss roof of the hall of the house of representatives at the west end of the building is now being laid. A few weeks ago all that could be seen pertaining to a building on the spot where the enormous structure now stands, were the foundations and walls a few feet high. The roof will now be put on as rapidly as possible, and work continued on the interior.
