Territorial Topics.

A third paper is to be established at Devil's Lake, by Mr. J. W. Shepard, formerly of the Review, at Rock Rapids, Iowa.

Five miles of snow fence is being constructed at the railroad yards across the river to be put up along the Jamestown & Northern.—Alert.

I. Golden, of Portland, Traill county, writes from Winnipeg to the Inter-Ocean: Manitoba will send about 20,000 emigrants to Dakota in the spring, who will be glad to get into such a vineyard. Give me Dakota, now and forever, for all time.

Scissored Sunbeams.

A Vermont editor in publishing one of Byron's poems changed the words, "Oh, Gods!" to "Oh, Gosh!" because the former was too profane for his readers.

In scuffling with a young printer at Danville, Ky., the office devil pulled his clothes of somewhat, revealing the fact that the printer was a handsome girl.

"How shall we stop the great evil of lying?" asks a religious weekly. It can't be stopped, but the evil might be lessened materially by abandoning the custom of putting inscriptions on tombstones.

The Kankakee (Ill.) Gazette is a good one on advertisements, or else the ladies out there are constructed on a different plan from what they are here. Here is a sample: "For sale a piano, by a young lady with rose wood legs. Address E. H. this office."

Summons.

TERRITORY OF DAKOTA,
County of Barnes and Griggs,
