southerly states from the dreadful cyclone. The destruction of life recently in Kentucky, Georgia and North Carolina, from this cause, has been apalling.

A boom "straw" if afforded by this item, from the Iowa State Register:

Fort Dodge road. Railroad men all say that the prospects are fair for the largest emigration on record into that region this spring.

Democratic information from Washington tells of remarkable strong preferences in favor of the ticket of 1876. It is said that a majority of the national committee believe Tilden should be nominated again, as he is the only democrat who can carry New York, while Mr. Hendricks' nomination would remove Indiana from the list of the doubtful states. The members of the committee are not yet disposed to advocate Wr. Tilden openly, but think that events will soon justify the advocacy. The isitor says that the selection of Chicago is commonly construed at Washington in Tilden's interest.

The Dakota fever is becoming epimic through all sections of the land, and yo the states is exempt in its ravages. No station or position free from its infection. It swann are available for the same and the third nather the content in the complete of the committee of the munity in any of the states is exempt from its ravages. No station or position is free from its infection. It sweeps away entire families and spares neither age or sex. But unlike the dread maladies that shatter the human system, populate graveyards and blight hearts, this carries only joy and gladness in its train. It cheers and invigorates, enrichens life and pocket of all who yield to its influences. It is a good thing for richens life and pocket of all who yield to its influences. It is a good thing for those affected if it strikes deep enough. The processions resulting from it have no somber, funeral hues, but one like those of the olden time from Egypt to the land of promise.—Argus.

Delegate Raymond, of that stormy territory, Dakota, has introduced a bill in congress that seems to receive the undivided support of his quarrelsome undivided support of his quarrelsome constituency. It has no reference to Gov. Ordway, division, or the capital question. It is a sensible proposition to amend the homestead law, so that the settler will have a fixed period-one year-within which to establish his actual residence and break a prescribed area of land-not less than five acresfour months, December, January, Feb. TWO THROUGH TRAIN DAILY ruary and March, without prejudice to his right as a bona-fide claimant. The Dakota press, representing the actual Without Change, connecting with the Fast Trains of all lines for the settlers in sharp distinction from the transients, urge the amendment on the EAST AND SOUTHEAST! ground that the homesteader, who has come to stay, cannot do anything on his The Direct and only Line running through cars between MINNEAPOLIS and land beyond building a house and breaking ten, twenty, or thirty acres the first DES MOINES, 10 W.A, year; that compulsory residence during that time is oftener a hardship than a benefit; that continuous residence throughout the year is an unnecessary requirement, compelling the poor man to throw away much valuable time and Striber and the settler makes his final proof and secures certificate of title. That might be all right if nature did not step in and forbid immediate cropping of the rich prairies. It takes time to get those fertile planns ready for paying agriculture, Mr. Raymond's bill asks that the only public land law, that is to survive, be made to conform to the necessities of the general process exhaust his paltry capital in liquidating trated "Golden Gift." Large-size Steel-Engraving.

FULL-SIZE PAPER PATTERNS.

A supplement will be given in every number for 1884, containing I full-size pattern for a lady's or child's dress. Every subscriber will receive, during the year, twelve of these patterns—worth more, alone, than the subscription price.

Peterson's Magazine is the cheapest and best of the lady's-books. It gives more for the money and combines greater merits than any other. In short, it has the best steel engravings, best colored fashions, best dress patterns, best music, etc. Its immense circulation and long established reputation enable its proprietor to distance all competition. Its stories, novelets, etc., are admitted to be the best published. All the most popular female writers contribute to it. In 1884, more than 100 original stories will be given, besides six copyright novelets—by Ann S. Stevens, Mary V. Spencer, Frank Lee Benedict, Lucy H. Hooper, the author of "Josuah Allen's Wife," and the author of "The Second Life."

COLORED STEEL FASHION-PLATES.

"Peterson" is the only magazine that gives these. They are twice the usual size and are unequalled for beauty. Also, Household, Cookery, and other receipts: articles on art embroidery, Flower culture, house decoration—in short, everything interesting to ladies.
