

Dyspepsia.

Boston, Mar. 3, 1884.

I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for a severe case of dyspepsia with great success, and can conscientiously recommend it to any person troubled with any form of dyspepsia.

JULIA BOYLEN,
6 Gilson Court, West Cedar St.
Bridgeport, Ct., April 11, 1884.

I have been greatly benefited by Burdock Blood Bitters. Two bottles entirely cured me of the worst kind of dyspepsia. I tried many other medicines, but entirely failed to get any relief from them.

EYRA L. NICHOLS, 8 Whitney Lane.
Providence, R. I., Apr. 4, 1884.
I am using Burdock Blood Bitters for dyspepsia and have received great relief. Have been seriously troubled with dyspepsia for five years, and heretofore have not found relief.

CHAS. R. SWEET,
65 William St.
East Boston, Mass., Feb. 11, 1884.

I have been using Burdock Blood Bitters for a bad case of dyspepsia. The first bottle (purchased at Bradbury's drug store, Washington St. (Boston)), which has done me a great deal of good. A friend of mine using it for the same thing says it is splendid.

LET TRUTH TELL ITS STORY.

A Minister and the Orphan Children.

"Rev. L. B. PAINE, Macon, Ga., writes: We have been using Swift's Specific at the orphan's home as a general health tonic, and have had remarkable results from its use on the children and employees of the institution. It is such an excellent tonic, and keeps the blood so pure, that the system is less liable to disease. It has cured some of our children of Scrofula."

Another Bank Embezzler.

Cleveland, Ohio, Special.—Isaac A. Stanton, paying teller of the National Bank of Commerce, was jailed Wednesday evening the 11th, for embezzling $100,000 from the bank. The shortage was discovered when Cashier Garretson counted the reserve fund kept in a special apartment of the vault, a combination of which was known only to Garretson and Stanley. When asked to explain the shortage Stanley confessed that a year ago he was troubled about a debt of $800 in his house and thought he could take that sum from the reserve fund without harm to any one, invest it in grain, realize a profit, pay off the mortgage on his place and return the money, but the investment was unfortunate, and to cover the loss he took more, and so on till he had taken $100,000.

A Great Horseman.

Mr. J. H. Goldsmith, owner of the Walnut Grove stock farm, N. Y., says of the wonderful curative qualities of St. James' Compound, which he used for rheumatism and on his breeding farm for ailments of horses and cattle he cheerfully accords this great panacea his preference, as the best he ever used, in an experience of twenty years.

Details of White Thunder's Murder.

White Thunder, the Sioux chief, was shot and killed on the 1st inst., by two chiefs of the same tribe, named Spotted Tail and Thunder Hawk. White Thunder was a man of prominence among the Rosebud Sioux, and aspired to the place made vacant in the tribe two years ago by the murder of old Spotted Tail by Crow Dog. Young Spotted Tail also aspired for his father's place, and was jealous of White Thunder, and it is supposed this feeling of rivalry caused the murder. White Thunder's only child a daughter of sixteen years, is a pupil in the Carlisle school, and so are two of the young Spotted Tail's brothers, one of whom a young man nineteen years old, is 6 feet 4 inches high. The other is a boy of thirteen. A seventeen year old daughter of Crow Dog is also a student.

HER SECRET TROUBLES.

The Unknown Trials a Woman Endured Without Complaint—Why they Vanished.

Near the close of one of the most trying of the few hot days of the present year a pale, care-worn woman might have been seen at the window of her dwelling apparently in a condition of complete exhaustion. Her efforts to meet the accumulated duties of her household have been great but unsuccessful, while the care of a sick child, whose wails could even than be heard, was added to her otherwise overwhelming troubles. Nature had done much for her and in her youthful days she had been not only beautiful but the possessor of health such as is seldom seen. But home and family duties and the depressing cares which too often accompany them had proven greater than her splendid strength and she felt at that moment not only that life was a burden but that death would be a great relief. This is no unusual experience. It is, in fact, a most common everyday occurrence, and a great prayer is constantly ascending from the thousands of homes for deliverance from the deadly power which is enslaving so many wives mothers and daughters. And yet these duties of life must be met. No woman can afford to turn aside from the proper care of her home and the ones who are committed to her care, although in doing these duties she may sacrifice her health, and possibly life itself. The experience of one who successfully overcame such trials and yet retain health and all the blessings it brings is thus told by Rev. William Watson, President Elder of the Methodist-Episcopal church, residing at Watertown, N. Y. He said:

"My wife became completely run down through overwork and care of a sick member of our household, and I entertained serious apprehensions as to her future. She was languid, pale, utterly exhausted, without appetite, and in a complete state of physical decline. And yet she did not, could not neglect her duties. I have seen her about the house, trying courageously to care for the ones she loved, when I could tell from the lines upon her face how much she was suffering. At times she would rally for a day or two and then fall back into the state of nervous exhaustion she felt before. Her head pained her frequently, her body was becoming bowed by pain and all hope or enjoyment in life seemed departed. What to do we could not tell. I resolved, however, to bring back her life and vitality if possible and to this end began to treat her myself. To my great relief her system has been toned up, her strength restored, her health completely recovered and wholly by the use of Warner's Tippecanoe, which I regard as the greatest tonic, invigorator and stomach remedy that has ever been discovered. I was led to use it the more readily as I had tested the health-restoring properties of Warner's Safe Cure in my own person and I therefore knew that any remedy Mr. Warner might produce would be a valuable one. I have since recommended both Warner's Tippecanoe and Warner's Safe Cure to many of my friends and I know several Doctors of Divinity as well as numerous laymen who are using both with great benefit."

If all the overworked and duty driven women of America could know of the experience above described, and act upon the same, there can be little doubt that much of the pain, and most of the depressing influences of life might be avoided. Such truths are too valuable to remain unknown.

A COMFORTABLE FORTUNE.

One of the Memphis Men Who Became Suddenly Enriched.

Stories of sudden or miraculous wealth have always possessed a peculiar fascination for the masses, and the man who has drawn a prize in a lottery is regarded as the happiest of mortals. At the last drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery two Memphis men drew $15,000 each. One of these was Mr. B. J. Dorsey, who has been a foreman of hands at work upon the levees along the Mississippi. He has been living in humble circumstances at 33 Jackson street. An Avellan-reporter yesterday had curiosity to see the man who had drawn $15,000, so he repaired to the corner of Main and Jackson streets and inquired of some children where Dorsey lived. "You mean the man that drew the lottery prize?" asked one of them. "Yes," replied the reporter. "He's moved away. He used to live in that little house over there, but he's going to live in a fine house in Fort Pickering now."

The reporter greatly marveled and went to the house pointed out to him, and asked a man there if Dorsey still lived there. "No," was the reply. "You see he drew part of the big prize in the Louisiana State Lottery, and he wants more stylish quarters. He's got the money and I guess he's happy. I wish I was in his place, that's all."

Mr. Dorsey is said to be a man in every way deserving the good luck that has been thrust upon him by chance.—Memphis (Tenn.) Avalanche, June 4.

Papillon Cough Cure.

Answer This.

Is there a person living who ever saw a case of ague, biliousness or neuralgia, or any disease of the stomach, liver or kidney that Hop Bitters will not cure?

My mother says Hop Bitters is the only thing that will keep her from severe attacks of paralysis and headache. Ed. Oswego Sun.

My little sickly, puny baby, was changed into a great bounding boy and I was raised from a sick bed by Using Hop Bitters a short time. A YOUNG MOTHER.

No use to worry about any Liver, Kidney or Urinary Trouble, especially Bright's Disease or Diabetes as Hop Bitters never fails of a cure where a cure is possible.

I had severe attacks of gravel and Kidney trouble; was unable to get any medicine or doctor to cure me until I used Hop Bitters. They cured me in a short time. T. H. ARTY.

Unhealthy or inactive kidneys cause gravel, Bright's disease, rheumatism, and a horde of other serious and fatal diseases, which can be prevented with Hop Bitters if taken in time.

Ludington, Mich., Feb. 2, 1879. I have sold Hop Bitters for four years, and there is no medicine that surpasses them for bilious attacks, kidney complaints and all diseases incident to this malarial climate. H. T. ALEXANDER

Monroe, Mich., Sept. 25, 1875. Sirs—I have been taking Hop Bitters for inflammation of kidneys and bladder, it has done for me what four doctors failed to do—cured me. The effect of the Bitters seemed like magic to me. W. J. CARTER.

GENTS—Your Hop Bitters have been of great value to me. I was laid up with typhoid for over two months, and could get no relief until I tried your Hop Bitters. To those suffering from debility or any one in feeble health, I cordially recommend them. J. C. SROETZEL, 68, Fulton St., Chicago, Ill.
