

OUR NEIGHBORS.

DAZEY ITEMS.
To the editor of the Courier.
Mr. John Simons, of Valley City, was in town over Wednesday.
Hans Oppgaard made a trip to Valley City Monday.
Miss Grace Frazer and Miss Dora Swiegler are visiting friends in Sanborn.
Mr. Nels Larson, our elevator man, drove to Cooperstown Monday on business.
George Eichbaum shouldered his gun Sunday morning, and marched to a stubble field near town, and captured three fine geese.
About twenty couples from here and Sanborn attended the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Swiegler, about three miles from here, Oct. 15th. Dancing was the order of the evening, and all seemed to enjoy themselves until the small hours of morning.
Mr. G. B. Vallandigham, editor of the North Dakota Democrat, the new Valley City paper, stepped off the cars here a few minutes on Wednesday, and left a number of copies of the first issue of his paper. If Mr. V. follows the course he has mapped out for the Democrat, his paper will become very popular in Barnes county.
Hank Gillespie and Cash Yancy went hunting Monday, returning Wednesday with seventeen geese, twenty-four jack-rabbits and a white elephant.
Peter Cameron, Edward Koeloen, T. H. Kellum favored us with a renewal of subscriptions this week.
D. R. Swartout and W. L. Wilcox were in town Monday on legal business.
W. S. Christian, the genial Hope attorney, spent Sunday in Cooperstown.
Attorney Jacobson is in Steele county for a few days.

Brookings Telegram: What has been supposed to be chicken pox has been quite prevalent in Brookings county for some weeks, but experienced physicians from other places have been here during the last few days, and pronounce it genuine small-pox. Ignorance on the part of some and criminal carelessness on the part of others, is spreading the disease all over the county. So far, four have died since it first made its appearance. It is generally believed to have been brought into the county by emigrants.

Recollect every day the things seen, heard or read, which make an addition to your understanding—I. Watts.
