

Around Town.

A dance at Dazey to-night.
Valley City democrats enthused on Monday night.
Cash has received an elegant new barber chair.
Ole Halverson, of Mardell, made us a pleasant call to-day.
The steam pipe in the court house, if laid out, would form a continuous line three and one-half miles long.
Ed. R. Vallandigham, of Vallay City, came up on Saturday night and remained over Sunday with his brother, J. H.
The residence of Messrs. Gillespie and Haskell will be ornaments to the town.
One of the breeziest local papers in the country is F. H. Adams' Cooperstown COURIER.—Hillsboro Banner.
Frank Baker, of Sanborn, is about opening a roller skating rink in the Senate building in Sanborn.
Our Flag, at Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, the old home of H. G. Pickett and B. M. Cowen, is evidently on top in this election, and shows great improvement in its columns.
Frank Scougal, the late genial landlord of the Sanborn House, has purchased the Kelly sample room and billiard hall in Valley City, and will remove to that place.

Cooper Bros. elevator is jammed full of grain, from pit to dome at all times. The Lenham & Co. elevator is also troubled in the same way. Their "throw off," in the shape of cars, is hardly equal to the strain upon them.
The Rev. Chute, of Nova Scotia, preached two excellent sermons last Sunday to large congregations.
Peterson Magazine occupies a particular niche in the hearts and homes of the people. Perhaps no more reliable fashion guide, is published for the benefit of the ladies, and its short stories, sketches, etc., are fitted for any home. Address, Charles J. Peterson, 316 Chesnut street, Philadelphia.
Godey's Lady Book for December is at hand, and does itself credit as the oldest American magazine. Its front-piece was described in our last issue. H. H. Haulenbeck, box H. H., Philadelphia.
John McDermott says it was only a few weeks ago that they were buying harnesses for their mules; now the active business is buying mules for their harnesses.
Treasurer Enger says the air is too pure in Dakota for stoves to draw. The stoves are all right.
The Times is informed by C. M. Hertig that the Kindred hotel will be kept open. Mr. Hertig speaks with authority, and has the power to make his utterances on this subject effective.—Valley City Times.

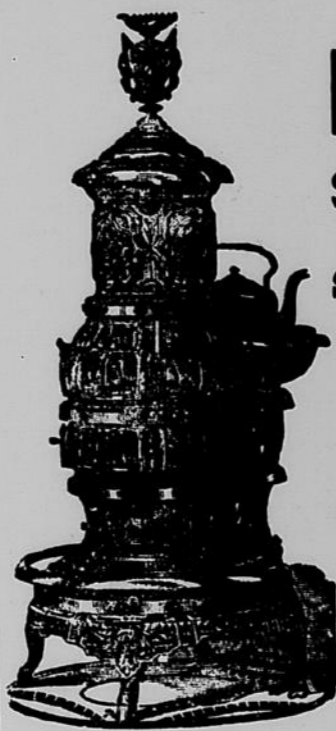

Lost—Between Jamestown and Cooperstown, a pocket book, containing $125 and papers of value to the owner. A reward of $25 will be paid for the return of the same.
Geo. B. Clark.
What is an Absolute Fact?
That Covey & Brown have an important announcement to make next week which will paralyze wholesale dealers, and bring joy to the heart of every poor, distressed farmer who has wheat on hand worth 50 cents a bushel, and little money with which to buy his winter groceries, dry goods and clothing. Delays are dangerous, but not when you await an announcement from Covey & Brown, the square dealers of Sanborn; for thereby, if your purchases are large enough, you accumulate a small fortune by saving what you would otherwise expend.

Remember.
A. N. Adams sells guns and ammunition.
