

Around Town.

Mr. John Syverson says trade was never better.

Mr. Frank Hunter went to Dowagiac, Mich., Monday.

Mrs. H. B. Sorter went to Chicasaw, Wis., Monday.

The pay car came up Monday, the branch train making two trips.

W. F. Dunlap says he is sorry to see the panic in prices extend to dried apples and prunes.

James Muir is up from Tower City, helping out his old partner, Christie, in his fall work.

Cash says about 25 couples participated in the "light terpsichorian exercises," at Dazey, Wednesday night.

The work train from Valley City was been on the branch this week laying side track at the Cooper elevator.

Mr. James, of the Sandwich Manufacturing company, complains that this is the liveliest town of its size in Dakota.

Whidden Bros. have a new line of cigars; and they are not bad, because we have had a chance to sample them.

Mr. A. Sutton, of Barnes county, with Messrs. Fleck and Wylie, went through Cooperstown to Red Willow Thursday.

Nineteen loaded cars out of Cooperstown Wednesday—with a general average for the week of 15, all loaded with grain.

Allen Breed started for Southern Colorado, Tuesday, for the winter. The Dakota climate in winter is too severe for him.

Mr. George Ellsbery, of Tower City, made his first visit to Cooperstown Monday. Mr. Ellsbery still has faith in the future of Mardell.

N. L. Lenham, of Sanborn made us a pleasant call Friday. Mr. Lenham prophesies a revival of business in the northwest during the coming season.

Charges on freight forwarded from Cooperstown station for November amounted to $16,825, and wheat only 49 cents per bushel.

The Morning Star Concert

Tuesday evening was a pronounced success, due to the exertion of Miss Tirza Gimblett.

The Morning Star band of children, from 7 to 14 years of age, showed proficiency under careful training. The infant class, midjets of from 5 to 7 years, sang to the delight of everybody. In addition, Minnie Newberry and Cora Langford, of the infants, recited to the delight of the elders. Miss Gimblett's soprano solo displayed her magnificent voice to great advantage. Mrs. R. C. Cooper and Mrs. J. N. Brown favored the audience with a beautiful vocal duet; Mrs. Brown also recited the "Flight of the Eagle." The Misses Haskell gave a duet which was well received, and Hattie and Silas Sutherland, with Paul Adams, entertained the audience with a spicy dialogue. Mrs. Dr. Newell's reading was a marked feature of the evening, and Mrs. Geo. Newbury pleased everybody by a like contribution. Miss Edith Brown's recitation was well received, while Master Hilbert Jorgensen, as a pianist, displayed great talent.

LOST—Between Jamestown and Cooperstown, a pocket book, containing $125 and papers of value to the owner. A reward of $25 will be paid for the return of the same. Geo. B. Clark.
