

Editorial Notes,

Washington's monument is complete.

John Ling, a negro at Cincinnati, is 143 years old.

The country north of Duluth is wild with a gold craze.

The Pioneer Press predicts a sensible increase of immigration next year.

The Ouray (Col.) Solid Muldoon says: The Muldoon scooped the Denver dailies on Mr. Nims' resignation. When it comes to inside pointers we are yelling triumph.

Square dances will be performed fashionably by eight couples in a set this winter. Nine tailors make one society man; at this rate it takes eighteen tailors to make a son of toil.

The English demand of China that she surrender the custom receipts of Formosa for 20 years, and apologize for what England has done to her. The stoical Chinaman's sole reply is "heap bule dlose."

Old Fort William Henry, on Lake George, is in danger of destruction by its material being used by the railroad to fill a neighboring swamp. According to Simpson, this is where Gen. Sickles shot the star spanned banner with Barton McKey.

The Magill murder case at Bismarck resulted in a disagreement of the jury. The associated press dispatch, as to the trial, must have been written by the Argus society reporter. The attorneys were all Erskins, and the judge "more n ekeled Solomon."

Gentle Hattie.

Hattie C. Cummings, of Dixie, W. T., has addressed the following to the Waitsburg Times: "I want a man of the following description: Red hair, blue eyes, one that has pride enough to dress good, but not above his means. He must be tall or short, thick or heavy set man; small feet; one that doesn't wear fine shirts much. He must be good featured, of light complexion, and one who is not afraid to cut too much wood for the cook. I don't want one that will go to sleep while at work. I want one that likes to hoe potatoes, work in the garden, and won't play base ball. If there is any one of this description, please answer through the Waitsburg Times. No dainty store clerks need apply."

What is an Absolute Fact?

That for thirty days from December 1st you can buy Goods at prices never before heard of in Dakota: For $1 you can buy 12 pounds of the best granulated sugar; 13 1/2 lbs of white sugar; 11 lbs best new mess pork; 16 bars Kirk's or Babbitt's soap; 20 bars hard water soap; 13 lbs choice prunes; 3 cans (gallon cans) apples. Arbuckle's coffee, 18 cts per lb.

That Covey & Brown have an important announcement to make next week which will paralyze wholesale dealers, and bring joy to the heart of every poor, distressed farmer who has wheat on hand worth 50 cents a bushel, and little money with which to buy his winter groceries, dry goods and clothing. Delays are dangerous, but not when you await an announcement from Covey & Brown, the square dealers of Sanborn; for thereby, if your purchases are large enough, you accumulate a small fortune by saving what you would otherwise expend.

Lost—Between Jamestown and Cooperstown, a pocket book, containing $125 and papers of value to the owner. A reward of $25 will be paid for the return of the same. Geo. B. Clark.
