Band Concert.

Despite the inclemency of the weather, the rain pouring down in torrents all afternoon and evening, guite a number of our people braved the elements and attended the concert given by the band in Marquardt's Opera House last Friday night. The program was very well received, most of the numbers being encored. Everybody seemed to enjoy the music and it is to be regretted that the weather did not permit of a tlarger crowd being present. The band has worked hard and steadily the past few months and has got to be a first-class institution, as good as any of them, and Cooperstown can well feel proud of its
