LOCALS.

William Glass received some elegant office furniture yesterday.

New hay is coming in right along.
The hay crop will be big this season.

N. P. Railway will sell tickets July 3d and 4 to points within 200 miles at a fare and third for the round trip.
Good to July 7th.

The band boys gave Mr. and Mrs.
Iver Udgard a generous serenade last Tuesday evening at the home of Banker and Mrs. Jones. The boys were invited in, and royally entertained.

F. L. Tronsdal from Eau Claire, Wis. will deliver a lecture at Eldsfjord church next Sunday, June 29th at 2 p. m. Free admission. No collection will be taken. Everybody invited.

O. W. Kerr received a fine buggy horse last Thursday. It is a pacer, and while he does not intend to put him on the track this season he can jog along some—fast enough to keep Flynn from twisting his neck to rubber.

For safe hail insur- ance go to the First National Bank.

McHenry has purchased a chemical engine and now wants a fire company the ball club has been clothed with blue and red suits and the town will celebrate the 4th. Verily the little city at the end of the road is getting there.

George F. Adams has been awarded the contract for carrying the mails between the postoffice and the depot, to take effect July 1st. J. C. Flynn, who has carried the mails for the past ten years, will have to go away back and sit down—on this deal.

Candidates for office can put their announcements in this paper for the sum of $5 to run one week or until election time. This must be paid for in advance and we consider it cheap.
We don't want any post-mortems, we have an old stock on our books now.

The postoffice will be closed all day July 4th, excepting when the mails arrive, which will be distributed and a reasonable time given for you to get your mail. The postmaster won't guarantee to remain in the office all afternoon so be on hand when the mail is distributed. It is usual on holidays to cuss the postmaster by those who are always a few minutes late. The office will also close on the 3d and 5th during the celebration if the stores close, otherwise it will remain open as usual.

We print a complete program of events of the 3d, 4th and 5th, in this issue of the Courier, and we venture the assertion that no town in this or any other state offers as big a time as do the citizens of Cooperstown—weather permitting. The races will be fine, many fast horses having already entered, while the ball game will be cracker-jacks. The other sports, negro quartet, juggling, etc., will be first-class and there is no reason why everybody should not come here and have a big time.

Saved from An Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambersburg, Pa., "I was so low after six months of severe sickness, caused by Hay Fever and Asthma, that few thought I could get well, but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, used it, and was completely cured." For desperate Throat and Lung Diseases it is the safest cure in the world, and is infallible for Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Affections. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Bateman's Drug Store.
