Mabel.

It is quite amusing to note the great perturbation which our American capitalists cause John Bull to manifest. It seems that the recent Atlantic Steamship Merger has caused him more dismay than it has Uncle Sam, inasmuch as it is controlled by American capital. He keeps continually looking on with an envious eye at the rapid progress of the United States, and everlastingly complains of England being a declining nation while the United States is a rising nation. Of course, in the main, a great deal of this is true, as the British capitalists can no longer preach the gospel of salvation of mankind to all the world but must now relinquish this station to the U. S. It is a fact that our country offers more substantial opportunities for the accumulation of greater wealth than England can aspire to; therefore, she must give way to the United States. But nevertheless, we think it would be a better plan for England to quit worrying about it, and content herself with the fact that other European countries have their share of consternation in trying to sweep back the "rising tide of American competition." The mere mentioning of the name of John Pierpont Morgan seems to make them all quake with fear.

Warren Posey has been kept quite busy the past week hauling to town some of his last year's wheat. Nice thing to have a surplus this time of the year, is it not Warren?

There seems to be a great deal of magnetism that centres about the Byington residence and which, it is said, possesses an unparalleled centrifugal force, as it evidently attracts a certain bright young man of this neighborhood there every Sunday whose name for divers reasons we will refrain from mentioning.

Hans O. Lien spent an enjoyable afternoon last Monday visiting with Erick Hierdahl, so they say. Hans has just lately finished seeding.

Syer Peterson, a well known republican of this community, was around mixing with his neighbors last Sunday. Syer is now helping Andrew Anderson finish up spring work.

Victor Anderson has recently purchased a nice organ. Victor apparently intends to have a little music on his own premises.

C. J. Erlanson and family visited at the Van Vleet's last Sunday.

Claus Jackson was again seen in these parts last week. This time he brought his wife with him, who visited with Mrs. Christ Jackson while the genial Claus explained to the Mabel farmers the excellent qualities of the grade of threshing machines which he is selling.

If we were an artist we should portray the present political aspect in North Dakota as follows: We would draw a democratic pasture, and right opposite of it we would draw a republican one. In the democratic pasture we would represent the grass as being very short and withered; whilst in the republican we would depict the grass as being very rich and fresh looking. As a keeper of the republican fold we would draw the G. O. P. elephant, and the occupants of the same as being very prosperous looking, while on the other hand we would represent the occupants as a lean and hungry looking lot, with the name of a vocation labled upon the backs of different ones, such as, newspapermen, lawyers, merchants, farmers, bankers, etc., as hieing off through the broken down gate of the democratic fence to the republican ingress. Right beside the democratic custodian, the mule with a disheartened look upon his face and extended paws, saying "Yea, verily, what have I done that thou should forsake me in this manner."

That Peter Person is a skilled mechanic is demonstrated by the recent improvements he has been making about the Erlanson home. He has just about completed a neat little elevator which is unique in every particular. By the way, Peter intends to visit Chicago this fall. We should like to know what Pet. has in view.

We are much pleased to learn of the success the Cooperstown ball team is having this season, but regret it very much that we cannot be present and witness some of the games, as we are a great base ball enthusiast.

What are the Cooperstown "Greys" doing this summer? We don't hear anything of them. Are they establishing a record for themselves this season? Please let us hear of their successes and misfortunes.

No school was held in the Van Vleet schoolhouse this week, as the teacher and pupils are very patriotic and deemed that no celebration short of a week would do. Now for some good hard study next week.

Otto Thorsgard and his sister Mary are enjoying a couple week's visiting from their sister, Mrs. Christena Larson of Crookston, Minn. Mrs. Larson seems to be very much pleased with North Dakota.

Miss Mary Emerson, of Long Prairie, was a pleasant visitor at Mrs. Harry Ames last Monday, and was much delighted with the gambols of Mrs. Ames pet lamb.

That Mabel is a great place for threshing machine men to do business is evidenced by the fact that the same agents keep repeatedly visiting our section. Fritlaf Greenland was again caught sight of this week, and it is rumored that he succeeded in disposing of a rig this time.

Chas. Frydenburg is not going to get through seeding this year, he is simply going to stop,—that's the long and short of it.

Varnum VanVleet arrived home last Thursday after a two weeks sojourn in different parts of California. Varnum says he enjoyed his visit very much, but nevertheless was glad to get back home again.
