

True Economy

The difference in cost between an alum baking powder and the highest-class cream of tartar baking powder would not amount for a family's supply to one dollar a year.

Dr. Price's is the standard cream of tartar baking powder. It makes the food delicious and healthful.

NOTE.—You cannot, if you value good health, afford to use cheap, low-grade, alum baking powders. They are apt to spoil the food; they do endanger the health. All physicians will tell you that alum in food is deleterious.

As a star performer on an up in the air toboggan slide Ray Metzger is a dandy. He was painting Al. Shue's roof the other day. The hooks on the ladder let go and Ray kept stepping up until the ladder had slipped from under him. Then he made a quick turn, sat down, and made an elegant slide down the roof and a drop of twelve feet. It rattled his slats a little but did him no injury. The paint pot and brushes came down ahead of him. Ray is now open for an engagement as the champion high slider.

Dr. Rose, resident dentist, Cooperstown, N. D., can be found in his office from now on until further notice. Office in Syverson's new building, upstairs.

Rev. Sargentson, the Boer who canvassed Jamestown and other towns and collected money, was married at Aberdeen July 8th, according to a dispatch from there. The reverend had a lady while here a few weeks ago he introduced as his wife and was exceedingly jealous of. The lady he married in Aberdeen is Mrs. Proud who is engaged in the Aberdeen Bottling works. Since leaving here there has hardly been time for him to secure a divorce.—Alert.

The old man put up a great spell here for the Boer cause and his pathetic appeal, while the hot tears fell down his furrowed face, caused our people to rush to the front with their contribution to the tune of $140. How much of it do you suppose those suffering Boers got?

The Jamestown ball club will play here a week from Saturday.

Yarmouth, June 22.—One of the most prominent business men of Yarmouth county died at his home at Hebron at 8:30 last evening in the person of Harris H. Crosby, manager of the extensive boot and shoe factory of the H. H. Crosby Co. Mr. Crosby has been in ill health for some months and the death of his daughter, Mrs. O. C. S. Wallace, wife of Chancellor Wallace, of McMaster University, Toronto, on the 2d of June, had a bad effect on his weakened constitution. He was held in the highest esteem by all classes of the community, was an active and generous member of the Baptist church, and took a deep interest in all public matters. He was a director in the Exchange Bank. He leaves a widow and seven children, and was 66 years of age.—Chronicle, Halifax, N. S.

Mr. Crosby was the father of Mrs. C. T. Whidden of this place and will be remembered by many who had the pleasure of making his acquaintance when he was here several years ago. His demise is regretted by many friends and sympathy is extended to Mrs. Whidden and other members of the family.
