Rain put a stop to harvesting and threshing last Friday and Saturday.
It is getting to be that time of the year when we can get along without rain up in this country. Six weeks of warm dry weather will be needed to thresh out this crop.

Hon. Geo. M. Young, of Valley City, was a pleasant caller on the Courier yesterday. Mr. Young represented Barnes county in the legislature last term and was one of the brightest members of that body. He is a candidate for reelection and we hope he will go in with a rousing majority.

arriving Tuesday. She is returning from New York where she has been on a visit to her brother Paul. Miss Adams was a little girl when she left here twelve years ago and naturally finds Cooperstown much improved.

Farmers and shippers, who have sent their grain in past years to Wm.
Dalrymple, Minneapolis and Duluth have found that they secure for them best grades and prices with lowest dockages. Being satisfied with his responsibility and business methods many are consigning their grain to him either at Duluth or Minneapolis.

best man and Miss Grace Cross acted as brides-maid. The contracting parties left at the latter end of the week for Oriska, N. D., where Mr.
Miller will teach school the coming winter. They are followed to their new home by the congratulations of many friends in which the Courier joins.

Hannaford.

This long, continued dry hot weather leads us to fear that the grain will get 2 dry and brittle and consequently shell badly in handling and breaking up in the machine. 2
