Purinton—and no better clerk ever graced a district courtroom.

Ole S. Gunderson, who has been nominated for county commissioner in the fifth district, is a popular business man and knows the needs of the people, if entrusted with the duties of this office we feel sure that he will handle the trust with credit to himself and his district. He is perfectly competent to look after the needs of the county, is inclined to view public matters in an economical matter and yet is broad-minded enough to vote for all things for the public good. When you run down your ballot and come to the name of Ole S. Gunderson just make a X at the head of the republican ticket and let it go at that.

A letter has been received from R. M. Cowen by the chairman of the republican county committee, in which he accepts the nomination for county auditor and will make the race for all there is in it. Mr. Cowen will not have time to make a canvass of the whole county but will see as many of the voters as possible between now and election time, in the meantime he asks the support of his friends all over the county. R. M. Cowen came to Cooperstown in 1883 as the first station agent at this place. For 16 years he held down this job and did two men's work. He is very competent and obliging and his qualifications for this office cannot be questioned. The only fight of any importance in this election on the county ticket is for sheriff. There has been anywhere from $1000 to $5000 up in this office with the odds in favor of Koloen. The way it looks to us—of course—is that Koloen will be elected by a handsome majority. Jack is considerably like the Irishman who put a lock on his barn door after his horse had been stolen—he is on the wrong ticket.

For the past fifteen years he has held positions of trust on the school and other boards of his township, and is considered a careful and conservative man. He will undoubtedly make the taxpayers a first-class commissioner and we hope that the people of his district will see fit to put a cross opposite his name on November 4th. He is certainly one of the pioneers of the county and is entitled to the unanimous vote of this party.

O. W. Kerr left for Fargo Thursday where he has established himself in business. Mrs. Kerr and the balance of the family left a few days later. Mr. Kerr has worked up a very lucrative business and does business in a businesslike manner. He and his family have many friends here who are sorry to see him leave Cooperstown. The best wishes of the Courier for their success follows them to their new home.

Lumberman J. E. Johnson, who by the way will be the next county commissioner from this district, informs the Courier that his orders for lignite coal cannot be filled half fast enough to supply the demand. We would again advise our farmers and townspeople to get in every pound of fuel they can put as the prospect for getting fuel from the east is very poor. The strike situation is very serious. A word to the wise is sufficient. When you have got in your fuel remember and vote for John E. Johnson, who will make the district a conservative commissioner. Don't forget this.

To the Voters of Griggs County.
