It snowed the day after election.

W. J. Payne is figuring on building a house.

The section house is undergoing some repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Crane returned from Minneapolis Monday.

Don't fail to hear the Quaker Quartette Nov. 15th at the opera house.

Martin Nelson came over from Finley Sunday to visit his brothers and sister.

The coronership is in doubt. The republicans may succeed in landing this office yet.

Joe McCulloch is building a new home and thinks that he won't have to move quite as often after this.

Miss Clara Beer wishes to announce that she will do dressmaking by the day. Inquire at Rhode's residence.

A very practical course in dressmaking, art needlework, cooking is offered at Concordia College, Moorhead, Minn.

Chas. M. Long came down from Minot the latter part of last week to visit friends in the city. He returned home Tuesday. Charley says that Minot is the only town on the map.

FOR SALE—house and six lots small barn. Apply to Joel Jameson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Olson left this week for Tacoma, Wash., where Mr. Olson has purchased a fruit farm. The Courier joins with many friends in wishing them all kinds of good luck in their new home.

You can get a loan on your grain at STATE BANK of Cooperstown until it is convenient for you to haul it.

C. F. Nelson has purchased Magnus Hanson's interest in the Hammer's ranch west of town and owns 720 acres of rich North Dakota land all by himself, which is an indication that Mr. Nelson has faith in the country.

We understand that Wm. Brownfield has sold his residence to Attorney M. C. Spicer and that Brownfield has purchased the house of Mrs. C. H. Johnson. Real estate moves mighty fast in this man's town which shows that a steady growth is going on all the time.

WANTED—boy to herd stock. Apply to E. S. Hamilton.

Sixteen years teaching commercial branches and three years active engagement in general merchandising have taught us a few things about what to teach and what not to teach. Attend Aaker's Business College, Fargo, N. D. and get the essentials. Catalogue free.

Dr. L. S. Platou, of Valley City, graduate of Christiania University, Norway, will be in Cooperstown Nov. 23 and 29 for the purpose of practicing his profession. Regular visits last Friday and Saturday of each month.

Cooperstown will probably have an electric light plant in the near future as there are two different parties working on putting in a plant. Carleton, LaMoore and several other towns smaller than Cooperstown are having plants installed and there is no reason why this town should not fall into line and be on the map.

NOTICE—Came to my place some time ago, one red yearling heifer. Owner can get same by proving property and paying charges.

Sec. 32-144-68.

Miss Maude Trubshaw entertained a few of her friends and playmates at a Halloween party last Thursday night. There were fourteen of them present and for two or three hours the young folks seemed to enjoy themselves very much. The entertainment consisted of figuring out the names of nuts and home made candies, the names being jumbled up. Miss Jeanette Whidden carried off the honors and received a box of home made candy as a reward. A lunch was served after which for a short time the girls borrowed sheets and paraded around town dressed up as "spooks." They had a pretty good time so they all say.

The Quaker Quartette will appear at the opera house Sat. Nov. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Summer ville returned last week from a visit with friends in Iowa.

The "I told you so" fellows were thick yesterday but not near as thick as the surprises.

We have improved farms for sale. FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

The past few days of fine weather has given the farmers a chance to thresh out some more flax.

Whidden & Koyl have just received a full line of children's dresses.

Now that the election is over and the country is saved again, business will settle down to the usual routine gait.

Call on the STATE BANK of Cooperstown for a loan on grain and real estate.

See Whidden & Koyl's line of ladies neck wear and beaded lace collar.

The "I told you so" fellows are strictly in evidence this week, and the mourners are thick on every street corner.

Go to First National Bank for real estate loans acceptable loans paid C. O. D.

An overdose of job work and rush incident to the election has crowded out the usual amount of reading matter this week. We will promise to be good after this.

The "Jay" in New York will be presented at the Opera House Wednesday evening, October 12th. This company is highly recommended.

Mrs. H. B. Allen and Mrs. Frank Allen, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shue, left last Saturday for their home at Staples, Minn., and Richland Center, Wis.

Lost—red Irish setter, answers to the name of Bones, had collar on. Five dollars reward will be paid by returning him to E. W. Blackwell, Cooperstown, N. D.

J. P. Blocker received a telegram Sunday conveying the sad intelligence of the sudden death of his brother-in-law, Wisconsin. He drove to Sanborn Sunday afternoon and caught the east-bound train in the evening.

Listen! Did you hear that crash? We did, it's only the price that dropped at Thompson Bros'.

Halloween night was observed in the usual manner by those who love a little fun and frolic. Outbuildings were tipped over, bicycles hung up on telephone poles and the usual gate lifting indulged in, but no damage to property is reported.

NOTICE—Having rented my farm I will sell my cattle consisting of cows, heifers, steers and calves. Also 40 head of hogs, shoats and pigs.

JACK N. BROWN, Meadow Brook Farm.

Mrs. A. H. Allen and Mrs. Frank Allen were guests of honor at a very pleasant party given by Mrs. A. E. Shue at her home Friday afternoon. The program consisted of guessing of pictures, representing advertisements. Several ladies having guessed the same number, Mrs. Carleton won the prize on a draw. An elegant lunch was served to twelve guests.

FOR SALE—The Randy Gundersen house. This must be sold at once. Call on T. E. WARNER.

The Euterpean quartette was greeted by a large crowd at the Opera House last Friday evening, and those who heard the ladies sing went away well satisfied with the program. The Courier will not undertake to individually approve of the various members of the quartette but will just say that all of them filled the part assigned to them in a satisfactory manner. The members were frequently encircled which showed appreciation on the part of the audience.

Miss Ida Stevens entertained about forty guests at a Halloween party last Friday night. The guests were first invited to test their skill at drawing animals and George Juell captured first prize. "Proposals" was the next game on deck and A. M. Baldwin was such an adept at proposing to the ladies that he also captured first prize. A fortune teller was also summoned for the occasion, and was much sought by the guest, at which time they were solemnly warned of their future and some gladdened by their future prospects, by the disguised Miss Madison. Other games were played and all enjoyed themselves very much. A nice lunch was served at which game the whole company proved to be experts at getting away with.

Startling, But True.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is," writes D. H. Turner, Dempsie-town, Pa., "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me." Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at Bateman's drug store.
