Court has been in session this week,
the regular fall term.
The cold spell put a stop to fall plowing and the probability is that there will be no more plowing done until next spring.
FOR RENT—2 rooms downstairs suitable for light housekeeping. Furnished or unfurnished. Rent reasonable. Enquire of D. FOURS.

From the number of attractions already billed for the opera house the people of Cooperstown will have no cause to complain of lack of entertainment this winter. Attractions are coming thick and fast these days.

Wanted—young men and women to enroll in the International Correspondence School. Instruction in all the leading trades and business courses, excellent chance to secure an education. Send for price list and or Scranton, Pa.

Mrs. F. A. Haskell gave a party to her friends Wednesday afternoon from three till five. The guests were given twenty minutes to compose stories of "George Washington and the Cherry Tree." Mrs. Patterson's story being considered best, she was awarded the prize, which was a very pretty vase. Another feature of the afternoon was the putting together of "Grey's Elegy." Miss Grace White being the most successful, won the prize which was the poem neatly bound.
Covers were laid for eighteen.

FOR SALE—Three large heating stoves, several medium size and a number of small ones. They are all second hand stoves. Will be sold very cheap. Also a number of second hand beds and springs, at Palace Hotel.

The results of the legislative elections over the state would indicate that Senator Hansbrough has the call for a re-election. The Courier hopes that such will be the case. Senator Hansbrough has made the state a good senator and we can see no reason why a little personal spite should be used to try and defeat him.

Iver Skaar fell victim to what may have been a fatal accident, last Thursday. While Mr. Skaar and his engineer were fixing some breakdown back of the cylinder of the separator they did not carefully replace the board which covers the cylinder when they got through. Mr. Skaar a short while afterward, again returned to the top of the separator and being unaware of unsafeness of the board he fell through and coming in contact with the cylinder had one leg smashed below the knee and the other at the heel. Dr. McDonald, of Courtney, was summoned. He amputated both legs. Mr. Skaar is now getting along as well as his injury will permit, and we sincerely hope he will rapidly recover. They were threshing on the Silas Miller farm.

of which about forty-five are females and twenty bulls. The females old enough, will either have calves at foot or have been bred to first-class bulls. This will be the first opportunity for farmers or breeders to obtain strictly first-class cattle as far north as their own places. Parties desiring to start a herd will here find animals of individual excellence and first-class pedigrees. Through the courtesy of the management of the North Dakota Agricultural College, this sale will be held in their stock judging pavilion which will seat three hundred people and can be heated.
