A new game called "Flinch" has lately been thrust upon the public. Mr. and Mrs. Trubshaw were introduced into the mysteries of the new game at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Blackwell last Saturday evening. It is a very interesting game and one in which you have to keep your mind working lively. It is destined to become a popular game this winter.

The Crows will play a one week stand at the Opera House commencing Monday 17th.

Listen! Did you hear that crash? We did, it's only the price that dropped at Thompson Bros'.

The new local telephone card for the month of November is out. We notice about a dozen new 'phones in the list from the rural district. The exchange is growing very rapidly which is an evidence that Manger Goff is a rustler and that the good service given is appreciated. Next month's card will contain more names and in the spring several rural lines will be built and extended to different parts of the county.

Lost—red Irish setter, answers to the name of Bones, had collar on. Five dollars reward will be paid by returning him to E. W. Blackwell, Cooperstown, N. D.

Harry St. John was tendered a surprise party at his home by a number of friends last Monday evening, the occasion being his twentieth birthday. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing crokinole, cards and various other amusements and a very pleasant time was enjoyed. Mrs. Hazard saw to it that the party did not lack for anything good to eat and regaled the guests with a very fine lunch. Harry was pretty badly pummeled up by the boys to kind of give him something to remember the occasion by and it is a sure thing that he won't forget it for a time at least.

A. M. Sinclair and wife, of Hannaford, were transacting business in the county seat Monday.

The Quaker Quartette will be at the Opera House Saturday evening, Nov. 15.

S. Selander, of Dazey, has been sent to Cooperstown in charge of the N. P. section, the position formerly occupied by John S. Olson.

Come and hear and see the Crows at the Opera House Nov. 17th.

Joe Buchheit is down from his ranch attending to some court matters. He says that he hopes O. S. Gunderson will have a majority on the official canvass, which is a very generous way to look at it.

There will be communion service in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and evening service in English at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Marsh are enjoying a visit from their old time friend, Mrs. E. F. Winsor, of Seattle, Wash. The lady says that the Indians out in that country are making predictions for a very severe winter.

We have improved farms for sale. FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Bob Moffat has gone to Livonia in Emmons county and expects to camp out in the woods for a month or two. He expects to shoot several deer and bring back some fine heads and skins. Bob would rather hunt than work any day.

Whidden & Koyl have just received a full line of children's dresses.

Frank Ressler and family left Friday afternoon for Warsaw, Wisconsin, at which place he expects to take up his residence. He has rented his farm. We apprehend that Frank will do just like the rest of our North Dakota citizens do when they move away—be very glad to come back again.

See Whidden & Koyl's line of ladies neck wear and beaded lace collar.

There are hundreds of dollars of back subscription owing to the Courier and the boys seem to be a little shy in coming in and settling up this fall. If this item catches the eye of a delinquent we hope that he will get a move on himself and pay up. We have been paying out cash for labor and expenses for a year past and the merchants are beginning to look in our direction for their pay for what they have coming from us. Subscribers from abroad can remit by draft or money order. Receipts will be sent and all amounts be thankfully received. Come on boys.

Miss Minnie Maurer, the seventeen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Maurer, of Binford, died Wednesday of last week from a brief attack of pneumonia. She was taken sick the Friday previous and was only sick six days. In addition to pneumonia there were symptoms of diphtheria but the doctors had some doubts as to whether it was the real thing or not. The funeral was held Thursday, Rev. O. D. Purinton of this place officiating. The remains were interred in the cemetery three miles north of Binford. The sympathy of many friends is extended to the bereaved family.

Call on the STATE BANK of Cooperstown for a loan on grain and real estate.

Thos. Robinson, of Hannaford and Peder Winger, formerly in the employ of John Syverson at this place, having formed a co-partnership under the firm name of Robinson & Winger and will go into the general merchandise business at some point in North Dakota the place not yet being decided upon. Mr. Robinson has sold his farm to Mr. La-Valley of Dazey. He says he has worked for a good many years on his farm without getting much ahead and now proposes to try his hand at something else. The Courier certainly wishes the new firm all kinds of good luck and success in whatever they undertake.

Reserve your seats for the Quaker Quartette Saturday evening.

The Courier editor is in receipt of a very neatly printed invitation to attend the opening ball and dedication of the Finley Opera House on the evening of November 21, and regrets exceedingly that he will be unable to be present. We know that those in charge will make the event successful in every detail.

NOTICE—All persons having stock are warned to keep them off of Sec. 12-145-58 or legal steps will be taken to see that they are kept off.

C. A. SNYDER.

C. E. Richardson and wife, of McHenry, were in the city last week. Gene has rented his farm and is thinking of moving his residence to town. He will probably go on the road this winter in the interest of some land firm and will use his persuasive powers to get some of the Iowa people to come up here and buy North Dakota farms—which by the way is the most profitable investment that they could make.

Dr. Rose, resident dentist, Cooperstown, N. D., can be found in his office from now on until further notice. Office in Syverson's new building, upstairs.

A great sale of Shorthorn cattle is advertised to be held at Fargo on Tuesday, November, 25th, 1902, at which time some of the finest bred Shorthorns in the United States will be offered for sale. The sale will be held in the stock judging pavillion of the Agricultural College and this will be a first-class opportunity for breeders to get some fine bred stock. There will be no postponement on account of the weather. Free transportation from hotels to the college. Sale will begin promptly at 1 o'clock. For catalogue address A. A. Booth, Rogers, N. D. During the sale the North Dakota Stock Breeders Association will be organized.

Lands bought and sold. If you want to sell your farm I can sell it for you. Send me your list and Lowest net price and Terms of payments. Describe lands and improvements. M. F. NOONAN, McHenry, N. D.

A careful observation of character will convince most any ordinary person that a girl who is unfaithful to her mother will never come to be worth a one-eyed button to her husband. It is not a guess. It is written exactly in the Bible, but is written largely and awfully in a misfit home. We are talking for the boys this time. If one of you boys ever come across a girl with her face full of roses, who says as you come to the door, "I can't come for thirty minutes, for the dishes are not yet washed," you wait for that girl. You sit right on the door step and wait for her, because some other fellow may come along and carry her off, and right there you lose an angel. Wait for her, and stick to her, like a burr to a mule's tail.—Ex.

Burlington Route

Compartment Sleeping Cars.

Our Dining Cars operated on the European plan, afford service of the highest character, and have an international reputation.

Mr. S. S. McClure, or "McClure's Magazine," writes: "I have traveled on most roads in Europe and America, and have dined on such as have restaurant cars. I would rather dine on a Burlington Route dining car than on any other I know of in the world."

These cars are beautifully decorated, lighted by electricity and ventilated by electric fans. The table ware was made to order for the Burlington Route. Fresh flowers are always on the tables. Close attention is paid to every detail of the service.
