LOCALS.

E. Marquardt has had the front of his building remodeled this week.

Mrs. George Newberry went to St. Paul Tuesday to get treatment for her eyes. Dr. Buckman is treating her case.

Stener Strande will assist in John Syverson's store during the holidays. He has been there before and is not new in the business.

Court adjourned last Saturday afternoon after being in session all the week. The Lien divorce suit occupied two days of the court's time and the judge took the case under advisement.

A car load of hard coal was received by Crane & Johnson last Saturday and you may rest assured that there was no lack of customers for that precious article. It was closed out in small lots, and made to accommodate as many as possible. The probabilities are that everybody will be able to get coal shortly, at least in quantities to keep them going.

The many friends of Mrs. O. P. Feiring will be pleased to learn that she has been successfully operated upon by doctors at LaCrosse, Wis., and the belief is now expressed that she will recover her health. Her friends will be glad to hear this good news.

Asleep Amid Flames.

Breaking into a blazing home, some firemen lately dragged the sleeping inmates from death. Fancied security, and death near. It's that way when you neglect coughs and colds. Don't do it. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption gives perfect protection against all throat, chest and lung troubles. Keep it near, and avoid suffering, death and doctor's bills. A teaspoonful stops a late cough, persistent use the most stubborn. Harmless and nice tasting. It's guaranteed to satisfy by H. H. Bateman, Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

Lost—a left hand black fur driving mit, between Hannaford and D. Campbell's. Finder please leave at Strandness & Furaas for reward.

Dr. L. S. Platou, of Valley City graduate of Christiania University, Norway, will be in Cooperstown Nov. 28 and 29 for the purpose of practicing his profession. Regular visits last Friday and Saturday of each month.

The Courier received a very pleasant visit from Mr. L. Ladbury of Gallatin last Saturday. Grandpa Ladbury is 78 years old and as spry as cricket just the same. He does not visit Cooperstown very often and this was his first visit to the Courier office. He will always find our latchstring out.

Victor Pike, we are pleased to learn, was recently appointed assistant postmaster at Cooperstown N. D. This young man has lived here during the last eight or nine years and is deservedly popular among his friends and schoolmates, who will be glad to learn of his promotion to this important position.—Glenwood Herald.

After the football season is over it will give the daily papers a chance to print the news. All the dailies are devoting from one to six pages to writing up football games. This may please those who follow the games but to the people in general it gets tiresome. What the people want is the news and less football.

Mrs. Dr. Kerr entertained a few ladies at her home last Friday from 3 to 8 p. m., at progressive Flinch. This is the new game that has recently found its way up here and is a brain racking game. The ladies had a fine time and the prize was finally awarded to Mrs. Maynard Crane on a draw. A very nice lunch was served and the party was one of those pleasant affairs for which Mrs. Kerr is noted.

of which about forty-five are females and twenty bulls. The females old enough, will either have calves at foot or have been bred to first-class bulls. This will be the first opportunity for farmers or breeders to obtain strictly first-class cattle as far north as their own palces. Parties desiring to start a herd will here find animals of individual excellence and first-class pedigree. Through the courtesy of the management of the North Dakota Agricultural College, this sale will be held in their stock judging pavilion which will seat three hundred people and can be heated.
