You can learn Gregg shorthand in at least one-third less time than any other system. Why study any other, when you can get the Gregg at Aaker's Business College, Fargo, N. D. Send for catalogue.

The attention of our readers is called to the ad. of the First National Bank which appears on the front page of this paper. The bank officers are bustling for business and if the use of a printer's ink is any good at all they ought to get it.

NOTICE—Having rented my farm I will sell my cattle consisting of cows, calves, steers and calves. Also 40 head of hogs, shoats and pigs.

JACK N. BROWN, Meadow Brook Farm.

The county canvassing board was in session Monday and canvassed the vote of the recent election. The result of the commissioner fight between Buchheit and Gunderson is still a tie and the boys will have to draw lots as specified by law.

Lost—red Irish setter, answers to the name of Bones, had collar on. Five dollars reward will be paid by returning him to E. W. Blackwell, Cooperstown, N. D.

The Quaker Quartette has come and gone and those who were sensible enough to blow themselves for a ticket were well repaid for so doing. The quartette appeared in the Opera House at this place last Saturday evening and were not greeted with as large a crowd as they should have been—owing no doubt to the fact that there has been so much going on of late. The quartette is strictly all right and well worth going to hear by all who are fond of good singing. We predict that should they visit Cooperstown again a large audience will greet them.

NOTICE—Came to my place some time ago, one red yearling heifer. Owner can get same by proving property and paying charges.

JACK N. BROWN, Sec. 32-146-58.

E. D. Stair, founder of the Cooperstown Courier, was the guest of Lieut. Gov. and Mrs. David Bartlett several days last week. Mr. Stair was greatly surprised at the growth of Cooperstown. Since he used to push the paper on this old rag of freedom he has accumulated a large fortune and he need work no more unless he so desires, but he loves the smell of a print shop and is now president of a large daily paper at Detroit, Mich. He does not set type, wash rollers, or do any of the menial labor that falls to the lot of the country editor, but he dictates the policy of his paper and swifs the ink laden air of the office occasionally. He also manages a large line of theatres in the United States. The many friends of Mr. Stair are pleased at his success, and were also pleased to again renew acquaintance with him.

Geo. N. Stork went down to Pau Tuesday.

Hon. Joseph G. Camp, will lecture at Opera House Nov. 27. Don't fail to attend.

Whidden & Koyl have just received a full line of children's dresses.

On Monday, Dec. 1st, Mr. Sanford Dodge will present that great play "The Gladiator."

Rev. T. J. Giblett, of Sterling, Col., will conduct services at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

See Whidden & Koyl's line of ladies neck wear and beaded lace collar.

The fair and oyster supper given by the ladies of the M. E. church at the Fire Hall last Friday evening was well attended and was very successful in every particular.

C. F. Nelson, of the Iowa North-Dakota Land Co., left last Thursday for a month's visit in South Dakota and Iowa. He expects to eat his Thanksgiving dinner with his Iowa girl.

FOR SALE—The Randy Gunderson house. This must be sold at once. Call on T. E. WARNER.

The mumps are going the rounds again, a number of the children being afflicted as well as some of the older people. Last winter it was smallpox this winter the mumps. What next?

The Eugene Page Concert Company will appear at the Opera House, Nov. 29. It is one of the best companies on the road. Don't fail to attend this high class attraction, as you will be much pleased.

Hon. Joseph G. Camp, of Georgia, 1 one of those wonderful orators which the South sends forth every few years. Gordon and Groves have charmed the continent for the last ten years, and now Mr. Camp comes with an imperial oratory that has never been surpassed. His splendid, graceful periods are interspersed with enough humor to prevent a surfeit of beauty. Mr. Camp was graduated from the University of Georgia—has taught for a number of years in the Academy and College—and served in the State Legislature two terms. His endorsements are from the leading men of his state—ex-Governor Northen, Senator Clay, ex-Governor Atkinson, Senator Bacon, Gen. Jno. B. Gordon, Hon. Clark Howell (editor Constitution), and Dr. J. B. Hawthorne. The south has no higher authority, and we unhesitatingly commend him to our patrons. Opera House, Thursday, Nov. 27.

Photographs! Photographs!!

Come to the gallery now and have your photos taken; do not wait until the big rush is on just a week before the holidays, and then expect your pictures for Christmas. Presents. Come early and avoid the rush. VON BLOW.

Startling, But True.

Ed. McCormick, of Helena town ship, dropped in to see us Tuesday and encouraged us financially and otherwise. The editor likes taffy along with the rest of mankind and a word of cheer occasionally helps a whole lot.

NOTICE—All persons having stock are warned to keep them off of Sec. 12-145-58 or legal steps will be taken to see that they are kept off. C. A. SNYDER.

A telegram was received by Gust Olson Tuesday announcing the death of H. G. Olshy at Aneta. No particulars were sent so that we are unable to give any details of his sickness. We understand that he was seventy-six years old. He was the father of Mrs. Olson.

Dr. Rose, resident dentist, Cooperstown, N. D., can be found in his office from now on until further notice. Office in Syverson's new building, upstairs.

The Sweet Company presented "A Jay in New York" at the Opera House at this place last Thursday evening to a crowded house. The play was very well presented and everybody was well pleased with it. The company is clean in every particular. They will be sure of a good house if they ever return to Cooperstown. They carry their own band and play good music.

Lands bought and sold. If you want to sell your farm I can sell it for you. Send me your list and lowest net price and terms of payments. Describe lands and improvements. M. F. NOONAN, McHenry, N. D.

In presenting the Page Concert Company we have the novelty of there being no other organization like it before the public, and maintaining the same standard of ability as our finest string quartette. The first half of the program comprises beautiful arrangements in quartette form: Harp, mandolin, violincello and vocal solos. The second part appeals strongly to the entire audience; the lighter and daintier music is played upon new and novel instruments; notably the marimbophone and musical chimes. The program has made a decided hit wherever played, and has made the reputation for the Eugene Page Concert Co., so favorably enjoys. Opera House, Saturday Nov. 29.

Compartment Sleeping Cars.

Our Dining Cars operated on the European plan, afford service of the highest character, and have an international reputation.

Mr. S. S. McClure, or "McClure's Magazine," writes: "I have traveled on most roads in Europe and America, and have dined on such as have restaurant cars. I would rather dine on a Burlington Route dining car than on any other I know of in the world."

These cars are beautifully decorated, lighted by electricity and ventilated by electric fans. The table ware was made to order for the Burlington Route. Fresh flowers are always on the tables. Close attention is paid to every detail of the service.
